

HISTORIC PAGEANT STAGED BY SHRINE THURSDAY EVENING

Depicted Events in History of Masonry in United States

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 7.—A pageant depicting numerous historic events in which Masons played a part, and dancing on Pennsylvania avenue tonight, brought the annual shrine convention to a picturesque close. The pageant, moving under a canopy of colored lights was witnessed by President and Mrs. Harding, about whom much of the activity of the convention centered.

Led by units representing various branches of the army, navy and marine corps, the pageant included thirty floats, 16 bands and sixty four Shrine temple patrols. On the floats, the thousands of spectators were shown the Knights Templar in the crusades, Pocahontas saving the life of Captain John Smith, William Penn making peace with the Indians, the Boston tea party, which according to Masonic records, was enacted by members of St. Andrews Lodge of Boston, dressed as Indians and George Washington in various crises.

Paul Revere was shown on his famous ride and General Joseph Warren in command at Bunker Hill, where he fell. Another float depicted the signing of the declaration of independence all of the signers except one having been Masons.

The ringing of the Liberty Bell by Masons was presented and Benjamin Franklin, member of the Paris Lodge to which John Paul Jones belonged, was shown pleading the cause of the new republic in the court of Louis 14.

Masons of the Union army were shown carrying slain Confederate Masons thru the lines for burial and Admiral Peary, was depicted discovering the north pole.

Theodore Roosevelt also was represented, as was Albert Pike, soldier, sailor, author and father of the present ritualistic system of the Scottish Rite; Chief Justice Marshall and Lewis and Clarke, Masons who blazed the way to Oregon in 1805. The dancing which followed the pageant was intended to represent a "united country in step."

Conrad V. Dykeman, of Brooklyn, the new imperial potentate and his divan were inducted into office late tonight in the concluding business session.

The applications of eight temples for Shrine charters were refused but a charter was granted formally to Ben All Temple of Sacramento, which has existed under a dispensation voted at last year's convention.

President Harding was unanimously elected an honorary member of the Imperial Temple.

The 110 Temple bands here for the convention were massed in a concert today. The 5,000 musicians were led by John Philip Sousa and Dr. William A. White, director of the Army School of Music, both of whom are Shrines. The concert was held in the American League Ball Park which was thronged with nearly 40,000 persons.

WINS PRIZE IN DISHWASHING CONTEST

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 7.—Twelve year old Gladys Rahn, of Maywood, who never did the dishes at home today became the champion dishwasher of three townships and won a $10 gold piece when in competition with 27 other school girls she washed, wiped and stacked two plates, two saucers, two knives, two forks and four spoons in two and one-eighth minutes.

One girl washed the same number of articles in one and seven-eighths minutes, but one of her plates was found by the judges to be damp.

McNichols, former chief clerk of the federal naturalization bureau.

BIDS ON OVER 100 MILES OF PAVING REJECTED THURSDAY

Officials Find That Bids Presented Are Entirely too High

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, June 7.—Rejection of bids on 135.8 miles of grading because they were too high and awarding of contracts for 26.56 miles of paving were announced today by the state highway department following a conference with Governor Small.

Bids on this work were received May 11. The proposals called for 173.8 miles of grading. Only 58 miles were accepted out of this total because the costs were said to be far higher than expected.

The same reason was given for rejecting 24 out of 53 bridge bids. The sections of grading and bridge work rejected will be re-advertised in the near future the department announced.

All of the pavement sections advertised for letting May 11 were awarded except Route 4, Section 11, at Pontiac. The pavement sections awarded with the successful bidders were as follows:

Route 1, Section 41, Massac county between Metropolis and Chouteau—M. Hays and Son, Chicago.

Route 2, Section 76, Winnebago county, between Rockton and Beloit, George Welsh Beloit.

Route 7, Section 1-3, LaSalle county, east of Monmouth, Monmouth Gate and Manufacturing company.

Route 13, Section 8, Saline county, west of Harrisburg, Charles E. Hamilton, Carbondale.

Route 7, Section 12 and 13, Bureau county, between Princeton and Dupue, M. Hays and Sons, Chicago.

Route 30, Section 12, Stark county between Wyoming and Toulon, Cameron Joyce, Smith and Elder, Keokuk, Iowa.

The amount of the bids and the average price per mile of pavement were not announced.

The grading sections awarded are in the following counties: Christian, Macon, McLean, Rock Island, Randolph, Richland, Clay, Marion, Wayne, Henry, Fayette, Ogle, Greene, Jo Daviess, Lee, Woodford, Livingston, Shelby, Crawford and Jasper.

FINISH DISCUSSION WITHOUT ANY VOTE LORD CECIL'S PLAN

Committee Decides to Take the Matter Up Later

(By The Associated Press) GENEVA, June 7.—The temporary armament committee of the League of Nations today finished its discussion without coming to a vote on Lord Robert Cecil's plan for disarmament and a guarantee pact among the powers.

It was decided to take up the question later, meanwhile asking the opinion of the league's permanent military commission in regard to the French counter project presented by Colonel Requin.

Lord Robert's project in the opinion of many of the delegates cannot be accepted and a compromise will be necessary in which some of the features of both his plan and that of the French will be incorporated.

NEW PROPOSAL OF GERMANY BEFORE STATE DEPARTMENT

Was Transmitted by Ambassador as Matter of Information

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 7.—An official text of the new German proposal to the allies on reparations was before state department officials today transmitted by the German Ambassador Dr. Otto Wiedfeldt, as a matter of information.

While official comment was withheld there can be no doubt that the clause in the German text declaring that a method of payment could be determined only by direct consultations with those who are to receive payments attracted wide attention in official circles. The note was handed to the state department by Dr. Wiedfeldt in the same way as it was presented by German diplomats at all foreign offices and its receipt does not call for any diplomatic correspondence.

The purpose of the German government in transmitting copies to all governments is merely to abide by the custom of diplomatic courtesy and to make sure all governments have an official translation of the German proposals in their archives.

In view of the position taken by the American government before the occupation of the Ruhr the German declaration for a direct official discussion of methods of reparations could not fail to attract attention here. The American suggestion to the French government prior to the occupation of the Ruhr was that a conference of the interested nations be called to seek a business-like solution of the problem. The German suggestion contained in the current reparations proposal from Berlin is in line with the theory that impelled the American government to make its informal suggestion for such a conference.

No official would discuss details of the German proposal and the official text received at the state department was not made public there also copies were made available to the press at the German embassy. It was obvious however, that the flat declaration of the German authorities that they saw no way of arriving at a permanent adjustment of the reparations tangle except thru the medium of a direct official discussion impressed official observers here as marking a step in advance in the treatment of the situation.

MOTHER TRIES TO GET CUSTODY OF CHILD

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 7.—Mrs. Julia Przybyski thru an attorney today filed a petition for a writ of habeas corpus, asking for custody of her child, Leona, five years old who she says is being held by Mrs. Nicholas Lenz.

According to the petition, Mrs. Przybyski said she was forced to start to work for living three months ago and placed the child with Mrs. Lenz for safe-keeping although she visited the child daily until May 25, when she was informed she could no longer see the little girl unless she contributed to its support. Mrs. Lenz was ordered to appear in court with the child next Monday.

Governor Testifies In Klan Ceremony Probe

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 7.—Governor Small testified today before the house committee investigating a Ku Klux Klan initiation ceremony at the state fair grounds May 26, testifying he did not know by what authority the rites were staged on state property.

The chief executive said he was in Kankakee on the night in question and that the only information that he had concerning the initiation was from a local barber, the governor added, "was so excited he nearly cut me."

In answer to questions by Representative Cutler, Republican, Lewistown, Governor Small said he has no more supervision of the fair grounds than he has of the capitol or other state buildings. He said no one asked him for permission to use the fair grounds and that legally B. M. Davidson, department of agriculture, should be the person to authorize their use by private organizations.

The governor declared he is not a member of the Klan and does not know anyone who is a klanman.

Compensation should be given the state for expenses incurred by private parties, the executive said, and he was of the opinion that religious organizations, for instance, should be allowed use of the fair grounds if they pay expenses.

"I want this committee to make recommendations as to how such a thing can be prevented in the future," the governor told the representatives. "I don't want this to happen again, but only the national guard can enforce the law, and it takes several hours to call out troops. The

THOUSANDS RESPOND TO INVITATION AND VISIT WHITE HOUSE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 7.—Accepting an "open house" invitation extended by the President and Mrs. Harding, nearly 20,000 shriners and members of their families, here for the Shrine convention, visited the white house today, the largest number that ever called at the mansion in a single day during its history of more than 100 years.

White house attaches estimate that fully 50,000 persons have passed thru the mansion since Monday when Mr. and Mrs. Harding ordered the doors thrown open and the usual restrictions as to admission only by card removed. The visitors have roamed about the mansion at will taking in everything from the long lower corridor to the state dining room. Only the private apartments of the president's household have been closed to them.

The visitors today became so numerous that the white house police had to devise a system of admitting them in groups of a thousand. Even then at times the line of those waiting extended away for several blocks under a broiling sun.

DIRIGIBLE LEAVES FOR HOME BASE

(By The Associated Press) DAYTON, O., June 7.—The army dirigible A. C-1 which came to Dayton today from St. Paul, Minn., left at 10 p. m. in an effort to evade a similar storm which caused the destruction of the T-C-1 here last night.

The ship headed for Scott Field, turned and started toward Akron, and shortly after 5 o'clock again passed over Dayton flying west. It was said at Wilbur Wright field the A-C-1 may go to Langley Field, Va., if it is found to be impossible to make either Scott Field or Akron. There is no hangar at Wright Field large enough to accommodate the A-C-1. The ship is in command of Lieutenant George McIntyre.

PRINTERS STRIKE STILL ON AT SIOUX CITY

(By The Associated Press) SIOUX CITY, Iowa, June 7.—The strike of printers in the plants of the Sioux City Newspapers continued tonight. The Journal and Tribune issued an eight page morning newspaper to the subscribers of both papers. Tonight they published another newspaper which will go to all the morning subscribers of both papers. The publishers plan to continue to publish both papers under the open shop plan and have arranged to import printers to take the place of the strikers.

GERMANY'S OFFER OF REPARATIONS IS UNACCEPTABLE

French Government Gives Four Reasons for Decision

(By The Associated Press) PARIS, June 7.—The German reparations offer elaborated in the note delivered to the entente allies today remains entirely unacceptable to France, it was declared in government circles tonight. It makes no appreciable advance over the previous offers and France cannot even discuss it with Germany for as was decided at Brussels yesterday the passive resistance in the Ruhr must be abandoned before any negotiations can begin.

The note was characterized as unsatisfactory for four main reasons:

First—Because it makes no mention of abandoning the passive resistance which is the first of the Franco-Belgian conditions.

Second—Germany offers no definite sum as the total reparations.

Third—In suggesting an impartial international commission to fix the reparations total, Germany ignores and seeks to violate the Versailles treaty which created the reparations commission for exactly that purpose. The French see no reason why the reparations commission should be supplanted.

Fourth—The suggestions for guarantees might be open to discussion if Germany proposed their administration by the allies but if the Germans administer the guarantees the French would expect no satisfactory result.

The French are still unconvinced, they say, when Germany pleads inability to pay. They declare they have seen her living sumptuously and that they know she can meet her obligations.

Premier Poincaré had a lengthy conversation with President Millerand this afternoon and gave him a report of his meeting with the Belgian statesmen at Brussels. The question of how the German note is to be answered it is said in official circles depends upon the allies.

BALKY ELEPHANT ON WAY TO CIRCUS

(By The Associated Press) BURLINGTON, Iowa, June 7.—The balky elephant that has refused to move from Pulaski, Iowa, for the last month and which last night broke its chains and started on a voluntary pilgrimage back to the jungles of the dark continent, was recaptured at Bloomfield, Iowa, this morning and is now under control of its old caretaker, Mr. Cunningham.

It was reported tonight to be peacefully sauntering along toward Lancashire, Md., where it will rejoin the "Honest Bill" Shows.

MANY DELEGATES FOR OPENING OF LUTHERAN SYNOD

Women Will Make Fight For Recognition on Boards

(By The Associated Press) ROCKFORD, Ill., June 7.—More than 1,100 delegates will be present here tomorrow when the sixty-third annual conference of the North American Lutheran Augustana synod convenes. The first formal session will be tomorrow night. The Women's Missionary society of the synod opens its thirty-second annual conference tomorrow morning.

Further activities of women will be an issue before the synod. During preliminary meetings of the synod council and other organizations of the synod, which have been taking place since last Saturday, this question has been brought forward.

A petition introduced by the Minnesota conference asked that women be declared eligible to serve on mission, educational and charity boards. The council favors its adoption. A second petition introduced by the superior conference would give women seat and voice in the general deliberative councils of the church, such as conference and synodical meetings.

The ministerium of the church met today and started examination of 25 candidates for the ministry.

Successful applicants will be ordained Sunday.

The fortieth anniversary of Zion Lutheran church here, celebrated this week, was attended by hundreds of synodical delegates and officials.

Need of additional buildings for Augustana, Rock Island, the principal educational institution of the nine now under control of the synod, will be presented by the president of the college, Dr. Gustav Andreen. Women missionary societies are now gathering a fund of $150,000 toward a new woman's dormitory. Two buildings, costing $300,000 are now being erected for use of theological students. The new theological buildings will be dedicated some time in October at which time Archbishop Soderblom, primate of the church of Sweden, is expected to be present.

Augustana College has experienced the most successful year in its 63 years of existence, Dr. Andreen will report.

There are several candidates, supported by conferences thruout the United States, for president, to succeed the Rev. G. A. Brendelle, of Rock Island, retiring head of the synod.

LAUGHING BANDIT QUEENS ARE BEING SOUGHT BY POLICE

Start Search for Woman Who Killed Richard C. Tesmer

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 7.—Laughing "bandit queens" were at a premium today as detectives started out to round men and women of the underworld believed to know something of the slaying last Tuesday night of Richard C. Tesmer, insurance adjuster. Tesmer, according to his wife, was shot by a woman bandit, who, with a male companion, tried to hold up and rob Mr. and Mrs. Tesmer as they entered their home. The woman, Mrs. Tesmer said, giggled as she pointed a pistol at Tesmer and laughed when she shot him.

Relying on Mrs. Tesmer's assertion that she would know the wide blue eyes and the smile of the woman killer anywhere, the police today brought before her a number of girls under suspicion who were told "open your eyes wide and smile."

Mrs. Tesmer, however, was unable to identify any of them as her husband's slayer.

Tonight the police were hunting for seven women, among them the wife of "Hi Hi" Simons, an ex-convict, who is said to have a peculiar smile.

JOLIET HIGH SCHOOL BAND WINS FIRST

(By The Associated Press) CHICAGO, June 7.—Joliet, Ill., won first place in the national grammar school band contest held here today in connection with the music industries chamber of commerce convention. The placing carried with it a prize of $1,000.

Harvey, Ill., placed second and received a cash prize of $500.

Gary, Ind., was third with a prize of $300; Glenwood, Ill., fourth with $200, and Wilmette, Ill., fifth.

The selection of winners in this contest was made in the same manner that honors were awarded high school bands of the country earlier in the day. Postoria, Ohio, high school taking first honors in this.

JUNE FINANCING PROGRAM OUT SOON

Washington June 7.—It was indicated today by the treasury that announcement of the June financing program would be made within a few days. PARING KNIFE IS USED BY SENATE ON OMNIBUS BILL

Slice Nearly $1,000,000 Off Measure During Busy Day

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 7.—A net reduction of $898,877 was made in the omnibus appropriation bill by the state senate during its consideration of the measure up to midnight tonight, but adjournment was taken until 5 p. m. Monday without advancing it to third reading. More amendments will be offered next week.

Slashes tonight amounted to $453,875 and increases totalled $172,583.

Among the amendments adopted was one giving $15,000 annually for salaries of three assistant commerce commissioners as funds for these employees having been eliminated by the house two weeks ago to the day. Senator Leaks, Republican, Champaign, attempted to provide for five assistants, but the compromise was reached.

The largest increase adopted tonight was proposed by Senator Barr, administration leader. It added $141,683 for the vocational educational board. The largest slash tonight was an entire item of $58,000 for the immigrants commission, of the department of labor.

The senate session nearly ended in a riot, when Senator Dailey, Republican, Peoria, and Senator Barbour, Republican, Evanston, clashed in a hot verbal battle.

Senator Dailey had offered an amendment restoring the $100,000 eliminated by the house for district health superintendents and Senator Barbour wanted the senate to adjourn so he might catch the midnight train for Chicago. The Peoria member termed the Evanston solon "foul-mouthed" and for several minutes the two shouted back and forth, each drowning out the other's voice. Finally, order was restored and Senator Dailey apologized.

Agreement was reached to finish the fight next Monday.

The senate $100,000 road bond bill was advanced to third reading in the house tonight after administration supporters had defeated several amendments.

One of these would have provided for a bond issue for $160,000,000. Representative Frank McCarthy, Republican, Elgin, declared that was what the bill would amount to but the house by a vote of 76-22 tabled his amendment. The net result of house action was that 257 miles have been added since it came from the senate and 114 other miles in new routes accepted by the roads and bridges committee, eliminated by full house. The senate is credited with having added four hundred miles to the routes originally proposed.

Tolling to midnight also, the house turned over bills after the road measure was advanced, defeating an appropriation of $32,000 for installation of an electrical voting machine in its chamber.

A THOUGHT

If any provide for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.—1 Tim. 5:8

You are not very good if you are not better than your best friends imagine you to be.—Lavater.

Edison is right. At least, what education the children get for the next three months will be from moving pictures.

Now that New York health authorities have ruled that a fruit pie must contain 51 per cent of fruit, how about the percentage of plums in a plum pudding.

A school census is now being made by the board of education, in accordance with legal requirements. The children of school age in all wards are being listed. When the totals are compiled it will be interesting to see if Jacksonville has not made a substantial population increase within recent years.

Every house in the city is occupied and many new ones have been erected since the last census was taken. In addition there are many more families living in "rooms" than was true at the earlier time.

TOO MUCH LAW

Bruce A. Campbell, president of the Illinois Bar Association, says that "unless sensible men come to the rescue, we shall soon be a government of laws with a statute determining every action instead of individual responsibility, determining our conduct."

The laws passed by the Illinois legislature in 1921, he says, amounted to 2,800,000 words. No lawyer could possibly become familiar with all that mass of legislation, and still could any citizen obey it all if he knew it. "If all our laws and municipal ordinances were strictly enforced," he believes, "our people would rise up in righteous rebellion and demand the repeal of many of them."

Too much paternalism, is his complaint. He wants less law and better law. He defines good law as simply "good sense." It used to be said by jurists that "law is the perfection of human reason," but few people even in the legal profession would pay it that compliment nowadays.

Mr. Campbell's remedy is a commission of intelligent men representing all classes of citizens to determine what laws are wise and necessary, and have the rest wiped off the statute books. That sounds very fine, in theory, but the people would not approve the plan.

ALUMINUM CARS

Henry Ford's latest prophecy is the replacement of steel by aluminum in transportation. He insists that the present Ford car, one of the lightest made, is too heavy. He says he is determined to make it still lighter, and is convinced that aluminum is the thing to do it with, and that is one of the chief reasons why he wants Muscle Shoals. With the power available there, he could make large quantities of the metal at low cost.

It is not a new idea, except for the scale on which Mr. Ford proposes to apply it. Aluminum is used already to a considerable extent in motor cars and airplanes, and its use is continually increasing. One car, noted for its lightness compared with its size, uses both aluminum and wood liberally. Some kinds of wood, it should be remembered are stronger than steel frames or tubes of the same weight. Aluminum itself lacks strength, but is being made into alloys which are very stiff and strong, with slight increase of weight, especially in airplane construction.

It is obvious that the less weight of metal any engine has to move by land or air, the less power will be required for locomotion. There is thus an immense field for such a metal as aluminum. And fortunately the supply of it is immeasurable. It is extracted from clay, and the amount obtainable is limited mainly by the power available for the extraction.

"All of our transportation vehicles are too heavy," says Mr. Ford. "We haul around too much excess weight. Our trains are too heavy." Common observation agrees with him. Look at the immense weight carried by Pullman cars, per passenger. Less weight of railroad rolling stock would mean far less wear and tear on tracks and bridges, as well as less power required. And fuel will not last forever. There will be much progress hereafter in all-round scientific lightness.

LAW HOKUM

Here's what the bootleggers are talking about: Ontario, Canadian province, has prohibition nearly as severe as on our side of the border. But its legal to manufacture liquor for export in Ontario.

The logical export market, of course, is our country. If the Canadian hooch is exported by railroad or legitimate steamship, it's easy for American prohibitionists to seize it at the port or railroad terminal where it enters the United States. The ideal arrangement for our bootleggers is to have the liquor exported out of Canada by motor truck, which can be met after midnight on a lonesome road and rushed across the line.

Following a few shootings in connection with this method, the government in Ontario made it illegal to transport liquor over the public highways, except to nearest railroad station or ship dock.

American bootleggers recently were overjoyed when a brewery in Ontario won an Appellate Court victory which could be construed as giving it the right to transport liquor over the highways by motor truck, for export.

However the executive branch of the Ontario government promptly telegraphed its prohibition enforcement officers on the Detroit River border to ignore the judgment and enforce the law as previously.

The Ontario government's stand is that the court judgement was rendered not upon the merits of the case, but upon a technicality.

The average American lawyer, who thrives on technicalities, would be out of luck in Ontario or any other Canadian province. Their courts are primarily concerned with the evident meaning and intent of the law, not with jokers slipped in by blundering of crooked legislators—such as omissions of punctuation or word whose absence creates what we Americans call "loopholes."

There are cases on record in American court history where the unintentional omission even of a comma in a contract has cost the defendants thousands of dollars.

It is all very well to "enforce the law strictly," but there can be such a thing as common sense—even in court—administering a law according to its evident intent and meaning instead of by craftily haggling over technicalities.

JOSEPH BECKER SUCCESSFUL IN MUSIC WORK

The Washington Post in a recent issue makes comment upon a concert given recently by Miss Beatrice Wainwright, her accompanist, Mrs. Gertrude McRae Nash, and Mr. Joseph D. Becker of this city. The paragraphs from the Post are as follows:

"A concert was given at the Art center on Wednesday evening. Miss Beatrice Wainwright, soprano; Mrs. Gertrude McRae Nash, pianist-accompanist, and Mr. Joseph D. Becker, barytone, were those who presented the following program:

"Duet, for soprano and barytone, 'La cidaem la mano,' from 'Don Giovanni,' by Mozart; two songs, for barytone, 'Amarillo,' by Guilelmo Caccini, and 'Mha presso la sua ragna,' Paradies; two soprano solos, 'Across the Hills,' and 'Ecstasy,' both by Walter M. Rummel; piano solo, 'Tarantelle,' by Noe; barytone solos, 'She is Far from the Land,' by Frank Lambert, and 'Leetle Bateese,' by G. O'Hara; soprano songs, 'Spring,' by Henschel, and 'One Fine Day,' from 'Madam Zutterfly' by Puccini. The encores were 'Tommy Lad' and 'The Lilac Tree,' sung by Mr. Becker; 'My Little House,' 'Tu, Spanish Habanera' and 'Sally in Our Alley,' sung by Miss Wainwright, and 'Polichinette,' by Mrs. Nash."

Mr. Becker while engaged in study at the Catholic University of America, finds time for musical work and has been studying with Miss Wainwright during the past year. Mr. Becker was a soloist at the reception in honor of Archbishop Fumasoni Bionde, papal delegate at Washington, and also sang as soloist at the reception given for Max Bohn, famous painter. His appearance at these two events affords proof of the progress he is making in musical work.

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM

COMPANIONS

By Berton Braley

GOOD friends, whose magic fills me
 With tales of every kind,
 Whose cheer or pathos thrills me
 And stimulates my mind;
 Who lead me in my roaming
 To lands beyond my ken,
 Then bring me blithely homing Again;

KEEN friends, who make life savor
 Of wonder and romance,
 Who make my spirit braver
 Amid the thrall of chance,
 Who yarm of sword and saber,
 Broad seas, great skies above,
 Or battle, play and labor,
 And love;

TRUE friends, when days are sunny
 Or dark as they can be,
 Who do not borrow money
 Or drag me out to tea;
 Wise friends, who gird and arm me
 Against fate's hooks and crooks,
 Here's to these friends who charm me,
 My books!

SOOY FUNERAL HELD AT MURRAYVILLE

Remains of Late Mrs. Sarah Sooy Laid to Rest Thursday Afternoon

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah Sooy was held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist church in Murrayville. The church was filled with the friends and relatives of the deceased, who was widely known throughout the county.

The services were in charge of Rev. William Gaither of Medora, assisted by Rev. Mr. Holmes of Carlinville and Rev. O. W. Shields of Girard.

Music for the occasion was furnished by T. G. Beadies, J. H. Fuller, Vernon Baker and George Coultais, with Mrs. Stella Beadies at the piano.

The floral tributes were cared for by Misses Lorene Sooy, Ada Sooy, Myrtle Sooy and Dorothy Millon.

Following the service at the church, the remains were conveyed to Murrayville cemetery, where burial was made. The pall bearers were Messrs. Louie Sooy, Edwin Sooy, Percy Sooy, Martin Anderson, Ernest Millon and Ira Millon.

LITERBERRY SUPPER WAS WELL ATTENDED

About 500 persons were served at the annual June supper given last night by the ladies of the Literberry Christian church. Ample preparations had been made and the large crowd was served in an expeditious manner. Among those present were people from quite a distance in various directions, a large number of Jacksonville residents attending. Ice cream and cake were served also during the evening and the ladies of the church will have quite a substantial addition to make to their treasury funds.

FRANKLIN DANCE WAS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

The dance given Thursday night at Marquette hall in Franklin by the Marquette club, was a success in every respect. The crowd which assembled during the evening was one which taxed the capacity of the hall. Brown's orchestra of Jacksonville furnished an excellent program of dance music thruout the evening. Ice cream, strawberries and cake were served on the lawn while the dance was in progress.

ALEXANDER

Among Alexander people who attended the picnic at Jacksonville Thursday were John Cockin, Miss Sarah Cockin, Mrs. Osie Duke and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. W. E. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Wiley, Miss Anna Colwell.

Misses Josephine Rubie and Jane Harrison and William Boggs went to Franklin Thursday night to attend the dance.

Mrs. C. M. Strawn is in Jacksonville on account of the illness of her father, F. A. Mosely.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis of Springfield visited relatives in Alexander Thursday.

MRS. J. O. KIRKPATRICK HAS SIGHT RESTORED

Mrs. J. O. Kirkpatrick of White Hall has returned from the Wesley hospital in Bloomington, where she underwent a serious operation for cataracts on her eyes. The operation was successful, and Mrs. Kirkpatrick is now able to see. Rev. Mr. Kirkpatrick was in the city yesterday to attend the county Protestant picnic.

FUNERAL NOTICE

BELL AGENT SPEAKS TO LOCAL KIWANIS

H. F. Crunden Tells of Growth of Telephone Industry—Hear Report of Atlanta Convention

H. F. Crunden, a representative of the Bell Telephone Co., was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis club yesterday. Previous to the address, Lloyd Reid gave a report of the Atlanta convention, which the members enjoyed. Mr. Crunden proved a good orator and gave the club members some information concerning the telephone systems of the country. There are now 14,000,000 telephones in use throughout the United States, Canada and Cuba. The industry is now forty-seven years old. In 1900 the value of the Bell properties was $180,000,000. Last year the expenditures of the company equalled that sum, and this year the firm will spend $200,000,000.

The speaker made a plea for co-operation of the citizens with the local telephone company in its task of improving the system. The Illinois company has spent $65,000 in making needed improvements. In the storm which did so much damage a year ago, the firm lost $29,000. A telephone company is not like a mercantile business, where money is turned over four or five times a year; but the money in this case is invested in depreciating property. Then the company must seek new money and new credit, and it cannot do this unless the rate charged is sufficient to pay the overhead and a fair return on the investment.

Guests present at the meeting included J. H. Dial and J. F. Monahan and P. Murphy of Springfield. Prizes were awarded to Dr. W. P. Duncan and B. F. Shafer.

MRS. READ NOW IN CHAUTAUQUA WORK

Many people in Jacksonville will be interested in knowing that Mrs. Helen Brown Read is soon to start with two other artists on a chautauqua tour. Mrs. Read, a pianist and a reader will make up the party and the three will travel by automobile over a chautauqua itinerary covering cities in Colorado, Nebraska and Kansas, for the greater part of the summer.

At the close of the season Mrs. Read will resume her position with the Horner Institute of Fine Arts in Kansas.

LEAVE SOON FOR EASTERN TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Baumgardner and daughter, Miss Mary Edith, will leave Sunday night for an extended eastern trip. They will visit Buffalo, Niagara Falls, Albany, New York, Boston and other places of interest. Returning Mrs. Baumgardner and daughter will stop at Cincinnati for an extended visit at the home of Mrs. Baumgardner's mother. They will be away from Jacksonville the greater part of the summer.

5,000 PEOPLE HEAR
JUDGE HARRY OLSON

Mammoth Crowd Gathers at Nichols Park for Mass Meeting
—Judge Discusses Grave Problems—Parade Is Great Success

"For a youth to be feeble minded or mentally defective is unfortunate; to be defective in the emotions is a calamity; but to be both emotionally and intellectually defective is a catastrophe. This startling statement was quoted from an eminent scientist yesterday afternoon by Judge Harry Olson of Chicago in a masterly address before an audience of 5,000 people at Nichols park. Judge Olson, who is chief justice of the Chicago Municipal court, having under his jurisdiction thirty-seven other judges, gave his hearers a comprehensive discussion of the scientific attitude toward crime and its causes. He discussed the problem of the criminal who is defective in the emotion, which is a new field of criminology, in which science is bringing to light some surprising facts.

The occasion of Judge Olson's address was the first annual picnic of the Protestant churches of Morgan county. At least 5,000 people from all parts of the county were gathered about the station, many seated in automobiles, and the bulk of the audience on chairs and benches. Hundreds who could not find seats stood attentively thruout the entire address. The meeting was opened with mass singing led by Rev. T.
W. Smith and the community band. Prayer was offered by Dr.
E. L. Fletcher. After another song, Rev. M. L. Pontius, chairman of the meeting, introduced Rev. W. E. Spoons, who made a stirring appeal for the projected isolation ward of Passavant hospital. After music by the band, Rev. T. H. Tull, chairman of the program committee, introduced Judge Olson. The judge has been for seventeen years on the municipal bench in Chicago. He is also president of the Bureau of Research of the Carnegie Foundation, and also runs a farm of his own. Judge Olson said in part:

"I want to talk about people.
I will first talk about bad people, then about good people, and finally about ourselves. I used to believe that the criminal was a victim of environment, that he was what he was because of what he did, and I prosecuted him accordingly. I now know that six out of the seven criminals on whom the death penalty was pronounced in my court were double defectives, mentally and emotionally insane. In conversation with men of science, I have learned that Germany and Switzerland are twenty years ahead of the United States in the scientific treatment of the criminal. We finally established a laboratory in Chicago, headed by an American physician who studied under the great criminologists of Europe.
He had not been in his position long before I saw that he must go or the officers of the municipal court must go. They had no psychological sense and no appreciation of the importance of studying the defects of the criminal mind. The tests used by the courts to determine whether a criminal is capable of knowing right from wrong were devised by medical men of 1848. New discoveries have been made since then, and the laws need to be revised. However, the courts are conservative. It is said that they are one whole generation behind the farmers and the scientists.

Predicted Twenty Murders
Dr. Hixon, the scientist in charge of the Chicago laboratory for the study of crime, has predicted no less than twenty murders that have actually happened. The boys who committed these crimes were emotional defectives. They were brought into court first on minor charges and turned over to the laboratory for examination. Tests showed their condition and Dr.
Hixon was able to predict their future actions. Instead of committing them to institutions where they could do no harm, the courts turned them loose and the more serious crimes were the result.

"Every year the courts of Chicago send to state colonies and institutions about 1,200 defectives,
who soon get out on parole. Dr.
Hixon sends to these institutions 1,500 such defectives and they are put away for life. The courts and police force of Chicago cost $3-000,000 a year; while Dr. Hixon and his laboratory are maintained at a cost of $15,000."

The speaker related many instances of criminals and their work, showing the acts of the emotional defectives, those who can shoot in cold blood and kill in the most horrible fashion, and yet have no feeling in their hearts. One had convicted of murder and sentenced to be hung had no serious thoughts of his own death, but acted as tho he was attending a ball game.

It is easy to spot the emotional defective by tests. They have split associations and think badly. They show a low grade of emotional reaction. Judge Olson gave a NOTICE.

startling revelation of the state of mind of the former German Kaiser. A noted scientist was a guest in the Kaiser's home at least ten times. The German ruler sat on a saddle in his library and told in the most horrible language what would happen to the nation that interfered with Germany's purposes. Said the Kaiser: "We will ravish their women, bayonet their babies, poison their wells, and destroy the fruits of their land." Such words indicate a low grade of emotional life. No one but an abnormal and distorted man could think and talk in such terms of the children of other nations. And the pity is that such a man was in control of a nation and plunged it into war.

Time Ripe to Teach

Judge Olson stated that the time was ripe for the preachers to talk eugenics to their congregations. Immigration has dumped on our shores a mass of feeble minded and double defectives. One Polish woman was in the laboratory for study, bringing a family of twelve feeble minded children.
Mendel's law of heredity has been proven true time and again in the Chicago courts. The speaker gave a number of technical details concerning the thoughts he had to present on this subject and many others. He showed a wide acquaintance with the scientific data on his theme.

Fully five hundred cars and floats were in the public parade which went thru the public square and business section yesterday morning. Perhaps two hundred men from the Bible classes of the county marched in the front of the line. The cars carried 2,500 to 3,000 people. The bands, Waverly and the local community organization, furnished music for the occasion. It was indeed a big successful parade.

VIRGINIA ACCORDS
WELCOME TO LEGION

The Jubilee boosters had another successful trip to Virginia Thursday evening at which the band furnished several selections as did the quartette and Commander Kahl of the local Legion Post delivered another rousing talk.

The Virginia boys had the band stand all lit up for the visitors and a good crowd listened to the program. During their stay there the boys disposed of more than 1000 handbills advertising the coming big time.

Although this was the regular meeting night of the Virginia Post by the time the outside program was concluded it was getting late and as the Jacksonville boys were pretty much tired out they returned without visiting the Post headquarters, after the Virginia bunch had promised a very large representation next week provided the roads are fit for auto travel.

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, June 7.—Jacob M. Loeb, president of the Chicago Board of Education under the administration of Mayor Hale Thompson, today described alleged inside manipulation of the board by Fred Lundin, political associate of former Mayor Thompson, in the trial of Lundin and 20 others, charged with conspiracy to defraud the school board. Loeb's testimony consumed almost the entire first day of testimony his examination not being completed when court adjourned for the day.

How Lundin, sitting in a downtown hotel, directed the affairs of the board issued orders and assumed a general directorship of school affairs was described by Loeb. He also described conferences with Lundin in hotels at some of which Mayor Thompson was said to have been present as well as a conference with Lundin at his home at Fox Lake.

Lundin declared in one conference, he testified, that no "high brows" were wanted as members acting, "we want fellows that will vote."

Before Loeb took the witness stand, defense attorneys pictured Lundin and other defendants as the victims of a political scheme to get rid of them.

Hup- mobile

Satisfaction is perhaps the one word which best describes the feeling of every Hupmobile owner.

Satisfaction—with the faithful way it performs the tasks he sets for it to do; with the fact that it requires next to nothing in the way of expert care and adjustment; with low costs that stay low all the year 'round.

Satisfaction, in short, because the Hupmobile always does the things he wants it to do in the way he wants it to do them.

DID WONDERS IN STONE

Work of Architects of the Twelfth Century Stand as a Challenge to the World.

The most laboriously wrought stone carving in the world, the temple of Chenna Kesava, at Belur, India, was built in the Twelfth century to celebrate the conversion to Vishnuism of a Jain ruler. Fergusson says of this particular temple: "The amount of labor which each particular facet of this porch displays is such as never was bestowed on any surface of equal extent in any building in the world."

Another masterpiece of sculptured stone, at Hullahid, India, ten miles from Belur, is greatly ruined now, and many of its gems have been removed to the museum at Bangalore. When intact it was the finest specimen of Indian art in existence. This column is one of the most marvelous exhibitions of human labor to be found even in the patient East—far surpasses anything in Gothic art. The effects are said to be just what the medieval architects were aiming at, but which they never attained so perfectly as was done at Hullahid. Fergusson further says, placing the Hullahid temple and the Parthenon in Athens as the two extremes of architecture: "It would be possible to arrange all the buildings of the world between these two extremes, as they tended toward the severe intellectual purity of the one or the playful, exuberant fancy of the other, but perfection, if it existed, would be somewhere near the mean."

LONG IMPRISONED IN MUD

Delicate Organisms Have Been Wondrously Preserved During Uplifting of the World.

Fragments of a colony of marine animals on a slab of black rock, with many trilobites (dark) and shells of the Sidney crab (light), were discovered by C. D. Walcott on Mount Wapta. These creatures lived before the day of the fish or any other vertebrate animal, and when land plants, and even marine vegetable life, were almost unrepresented. Other animals of the sea, however, existed in great profusion, and here and there conditions were so favorable for their burial in the mud and sand of the Cambrian sea that they were preserved unbroken, and throughout all the processes of rock-making and mountain-building escaped destruction.

In one of these favorable places in the Canadian Rockies the most delicate of organisms, like the jelly fish, have been so exquisitely preserved that one can hardly realize that they were buried in the mud fifteen or twenty million years ago, and have remained undisturbed while several miles of thickness of sediment were deposited over them, changed into rock, elevated into mountain masses, and later eroded into the present mountains and canyons.

China's Sacred Mountains.

Thousands of pilgrims come every year from all parts of China to visit the shrines and temples of the sacred mountain of Hunan, Nan Yoh Shan, one of the five sacred peaks of China. Early in October more than 10,000 pilgrims arrive daily. Some of the pilgrims travel from their homes on foot, coming great distances. They kneel and bow their heads down to the little stools, which they carry in their hands, every five, seven or ten steps, according to the vow they have made. At one end of the stools are made sticks of incense, the burning of which is part of their worship.

In a large majority of the cases the vows have been made on behalf of a sick mother, and the journeys are taken as an expression of thanksgiving in case of recovery, or as a prayer for merces in the other world in case of a fatal issue of the illness.

Pigeons in Primitive Times.

Pigeons have been domesticated from the earliest times. They were looked upon with much affection by primitive peoples, and one of the incidents of wealth was the number of doves or a man possessed. Mention of turtles and pigeons in the Bible usually is in connection with sacrifice. As in the case of the parents of Jesus (Luke 2:24), the poor were allowed to bring, instead of a lamb, two turtles or two young pigeons.

The first known law for bird protection, found in Deuteronomy 22:6, forbidding the killing of a mother bird on the nest probably was largely for the benefit of the pigeon. Piliy wrote of pigeons, especially noting their manner in drinking—"not holding up their bills between whistles."

Yes, He Was First-Class.

Bart Kennedy, chief deck steward of transatlantic liner, tells this one:

One morning between six and seven o'clock a second-class passenger climbed over the first-class promenade to enjoy a stroll on the long deck. He is some lively walking and some fancy callisthenics. A sailor was scrubbing the deck, and, feeling that he should not permit the rules of the ship to be broken even at that early hour, intercepted the passenger and asked:

"Are you first-class, sir?"
The passenger laid his hands on the sailor's shoulders and replied: "I never felt better in my life."

Styles for Evening Wraps Come From Many Sources

By JULIA BOTTOMLEY

It is difficult to generalize about the present styles in evening wraps. They are so varied. Individual taste has the widest freedom in the choice of these garments and one may indulge a fancy that is attracted by an India shawl, worn in the manner of a cape, or by a genuine mandarin coat, or choose any one of several silhouettes or any one, or two, of many materials to make them. The fancy for wraps to match dresses worn under them has grown beyond the limit of the tailored mode and is much in evidence in evening wraps. In these, capes of black crepe or satin, are lined with crepe or other material like the dress, or the material of the dress is otherwise introduced into the wrap. An example is shown in the illustration, revealing a cape made of brocade and plain black satin combined, and lined with plain crepe in a light color. It is finished at the neck with a band of fur. The straight short-sleeved evening dress is of the same brocade as the upper part of the cape, which can, of course, be worn with other gowns.

Heavy black crepe is a favored material for evening wraps. Caps of it are shown made in two sections, the lower one very full and the upper one richly embroidered in colors. Voluminous collars are often of fur. Straight coats of tulle, covered with embroidery, and flaring coats bordered with platings of wide ribbon are among the new offerings for this season. BIG REUNION OPENS AT SCHOOL FOR DEAF

About 120 Guests Already in Attendance as First Program is Given Last Night in Chapel—Everything Arranged for Convenience of Visitors.

The four days reunion of the Illinois Alumni at which the Illinois Association for the Deaf are guests convened yesterday evening at 8 o'clock in the chapel at the School for the Deaf and the following interesting program was carried out:

Invocation in Sign—Reverend Hasenstab.
Reading of the Call of the Alumni Association—Mrs. F. Faulkner of Cairo.
Address of Welcome—Col. O. C. Smith, Miss Grace Hasenstab interpreter.

Address of Welcome in Sign—Professor T. V. Archer.
Reading Letter from Judge Jenkins—Reverend Hasenstab.
Response for the Alumni—Mrs. Faulkner.

Response for the State Association of the Deaf—Frank Johnson of Chicago.
Announcement of Committees by the President—Mrs. Hasenstab.
Miscellaneous Announcements—Coach Robey Burns.

Short Greeting Talks—Miss Frances Wood and D. W. George. After the program was carried out the guests adjourned to the reception rooms and the lawn and the general reception was held. Everything is arranged perfectly for the comfort of the guests even to a bulletin board in the main hall announcing all of the principal events daily.

One hundred and twenty guests have already arrived and many more are expected, one member having driven 500 miles by auto to attend. There is also one gentleman present who graduated with the class of 1868.

During the evening it was announced that on account of Commencement exercises at the Iowa School it was impossible to get the baseball team here for the Saturday game so the fast team from Hyde Park high school has been obtained as foes of the deaf boys and our local boys will have to step as they have never stepped before if they wish to show the visitors that they really have the class on the diamond as the Hyde Park high school has the reputation of having some team.

Another announcement that was received with applause was that the Chamber of Commerce has promised to furnish thirty cars for a sight seeing trip around Jacksonville this afternoon. The Association wish to announce that the public is very welcome at all times and especially so at the Saturday baseball game which will be free to everybody inasmuch as the good friends of Jacksonville have made this game possible by the liberal donations to defray the expenses of the visiting team.

MORE DORT FACTS Let Me Give You a Demonstration

The speed record for a stock car with a motor of less than two hundred cubic inch displacement is now held by the Dort Six. This record was made at Fresno, California, last week, the Dort traveling ten miles in nine minutes and twenty-six seconds flat.

The car, piloted by Ernest Johnson, was under official observation and was timed by representatives of the press. It was standard in every respect with standard factory motor, standard factory gear ratio and complete touring equipment, including a spare tire.

The test, which was conducted by the Logan Auto Company, Dort distributors, took place on the Fresno speedway and attracted wide attention up and down the west coast. This run is but one of the many records established by the Dort Six. In hill climbing, economy tests, an endurance tests as well as in speed the Dort Six has proved to be a remarkable car.

Winner Will Represent Illinois College at Monmouth Next Year

Tomorrow night at eight o'clock the annual Junior Oratorical Contest will be held in Jones chapel, Illinois College. There are at present four entrants: One Junior, two Sophomores and one Freshman, as follows: Edwin Miller, Orville Foreman, Glen Josephson, and Frank Underwood.

The winner of the contest will have the honor of representing the College in the Intercollegiate Oratorical Contest at Monmouth next year. Hitherto, the prize of $12.50 has gone to the highest ranking contestant from the Junior class. As, however, but one Junior will take part in this year's contest, he will receive the prize only if he obtains first or second place.

The contestants are few, there is every reason to believe that their work will be of unusual quality, and should justify the presence of a large audience. Admission will be free, and students and friends of the College are cordially invited to attend.

Doctor Rammelkamp will preside.

REV. SYMONDS HOLDS SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Rev. Thomas Symonds of Rockbridge, former pastor of the M. E. church at Concord, was in the city yesterday attending the picnic. He is now in the midst of a very successful meeting at Old Rubicon church, which is on his circuit. He is assisted by the popular evangelist, Rev. D. C. Linton, who held so many meetings last winter in the Jacksonville district.

WILL TAKE DEAF PEOPLE ON TOUR

Delegates to School for Deaf Alumni Association Will Be Passing on Automobile Trip About City

When directors of the chamber of commerce were informed several weeks ago of the coming of a large number of delegates to attend the convention of the Alumni association of Illinois School for the Deaf it was stated that the chamber of commerce would be glad to furnish automobiles to take delegates on a trip thru the city.

Yesterday it was indicated that necessary for this purpose and arrangements are being made for car owners to assemble at the School for the Deaf at 2 o'clock this afternoon and convey the delegates thru the principal streets of Jacksonville and to points of interest nearby. The whole journey will occupy about an hour and a half.

MAY PIPE GAS INTO JACKSONVILLE

Mr. Sarber Declares He Will Lay Pipe Line If Distributing Plan Can Be Arranged

M. L. Sarber of Chanute, Kans., an experienced oil and gas man, has been in Jacksonville for a week or more. This is Mr. Sarber's second visit and he came to look over the gas field east of the city.

The Kansas man has no hesitation in saying that the field is very promising. In fact, he has such faith in the field that he has offered to lay a pipe line into Jacksonville if a satisfactory arrangement can be made with the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. for distribution of the gas thru their mains.

In event that an arrangement is made between the company and Mr. Sarber or any other producer, it is safe to say that a much lower price will be available for gas consumers. A continued supply of natural gas for Jacksonville would be a boon to the city and make for rapid development.

WILL PAINT BARN AT FAIR GROUNDS

The board of directors of the Morgan County Fair association held a meeting last night at the Chamber of Commerce. The board discussed plans for painting the two race horse barns, the ticket boxes and other buildings on the grounds. White paint will be used. It is planned to double the capacity of the grand stand, and the board approved some suggestions made by Col. O. C. Smith, which will be followed in the construction of the new part.

Members of the committee in charge of the matinee race program for the Fourth of July were present, and the board discussed plans for this event.

GROCE FUNERAL IS HELD AT WINCHESTER

Body Brought from Green, Iowa, Is Buried Wednesday—Was Resident of Scott for Many Years—Commencement Exercises Held

Winchester, June 7.—The remains of Mrs. Anna D. Groce were brought to this city Tuesday from Green, Iowa, and taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Gorton. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Christian church in charge of Rev. Mr. Elmore. Suitable music was furnished by the church choir. Flowers were cared for by the Misses Venus, Lucile and Helen Groce, Eileen Carlton, Ida Waggoner and Louise Little.

The pallbearers were Louis, Berry and Elbert Carlton, Carl Lane, Jess Groce and Russell Lane. Interment took place in Gillham cemetery. Mrs. Groce was born July 25, 1838, and was a resident of Winchester for many years. The remains were accompanied to this city by her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Taylor, and other relatives.

Commencement exercises for the class of '23 of the community high school were held this evening and were largely attended. The program was carried out as per schedule, except that Dean Manchester could not be present. Prof. W. L. Byer of Normal university delivered the graduation address.

The Misses Lorretta Lashmet and Helen Metzler have gone to Denver, Colo., to spend the summer.

Miss Catherine Dugan of Beardstown attended the commencement exercises here this evening.

Miss Kate Ellis of White Hall is the guest during the commencement season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Mader.

The Misses Helen Bly and Hazel Dell, students at the Illinois Woman's college in Jacksonville, are guests at the home of Miss Mary Elizabeth Roark.

Luther Mason of Peoria is visiting his mother in this city.

Rev. C. C. Nordling attended the Woman's college commencement exercises in Jacksonville this week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Yates have arrived from Kinderhook to visit relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris O'Brien have returned to Bluffs after a visit with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. B. F. Worcester of Roadhouse is the guest of Mrs. W. C. Keuchler and family this week.

Mrs. Gertrude Demereth of Winchester was a shopper in the city yesterday.

ANNOUNCE SPEAKERS FOR SIG TRIENNIAL

Rev. J. M. Phillips, Richard Yates, Ensley Moor, H. H. Bancroft and Many Others to Speak at Reunion June 12

The triennial reunion of Sigma Pi literary society of Illinois college will be held Tuesday evening, June 12, at Central Christian church. The occasion also marks the eightieth anniversary of the founding of the society. A large number of out of town alumni are expected to be present, and many have already sent in their acceptance of the invitation. Speakers for the reunion were announced last night as follows: Rev. John M. Phillips of Manchester, N. H., Hon. Richard Yates of Springfield, John A. Meeks of Danville, President C. H. Rammelkamp, Ensley Moor and Edward Bullard of Chicago.

The toastmaster for the evening will be H. H. Bancroft. This is a notable occasion for the Sigma Pi members, and it is expected that every Sig will be present to do honor to the old society. The society was organized in 1845, and is one of the oldest organizations of its kind in the state of Illinois.

DR. JAMES IS GUEST AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Dr. Edmund James is spending a few days in Jacksonville, a guest of his long time friend, President J. R. Harker at Illinois Woman's College. Dr. James, who has spent the past two years on an orange ranch at Covina, Calif., expected to be present for the commencement events at the Woman's College, but was delayed enroute.

From Jacksonville Dr. James will go to Urbana for commencement events of the University of Illinois. For a period of twelve years he was president of this great institution and is now president emeritus. Prior to going to the University of Illinois Dr. James was president of Northwestern University and his leadership has been a large factor in the educational progress made in Illinois.

Jacksonville people remember with pleasure that this city has some claim upon this eminent educator. He was born in this city, but family home at that time being on East State street.

APPOINTS COMMITTEES FOR S. JACKSONVILLE

Village Board Meets and President Selects Committees—Will Enforce Anti-bicycle Riding Ordinance

At a meeting of the board of South Jacksonville Wednesday night President S. J. Perry appointed the following committees: Finance—O. B. Heintz, O. H. Buhrman and James McGinnis. Lights—Orville Coultas, William Hembrough and Bernard Kopmeyer. Streets and alleys—McGinnis, Heintz and Hembrough. Ordinances—Hembrough, McGinnis and Coultas. Sewer—Buhrman, Heintz and Kopmeyer. Fire—Kopmeyer, Buhrman and Coultas.

Treasurer—J. Riggs Taylor. Constable—Lloyd Magill.

The practice of riding bicycles on sidewalks was discussed and it was decided to enforce the ordinance that is in existence prohibiting this practice and the constable was instructed to enforce this ordinance to the letter. It is not the desire of the council to deprive anyone of liberties or pleasures but they feel that the citizens should be protected from the annoyance of persons riding on the sidewalks.

FAVORITE LODGE CONFERRED RANKS

Page and Esquire Were Given Thursday Evening—Special Meeting Next Wednesday

Favorite Lodge No. 376 Knights of Pythias conferred the rank of Page and Esquire at the regular meeting held Thursday evening. Roy G. Blauvelt and Luther Carr received the rank of Page and Blauvelt was then given the rank of Esquire.

It was voted to hold a special meeting next Wednesday night to celebrate the securing of 100 applications for membership since January 1. The rank of Page to be conferred on several candidates at this meeting will bring the total membership of the lodge to 600. An entertainment will follow conferring of the rank.

It was also voted by the lodge to open their doors to the visitors to the city during the three days' convention of the United Spanish War veterans and the dedication of the soldiers cottages at State hospital.

A Story of Sacrifice

(By Belle Short Lambert)

No incident associated with the early history of Illinois Woman's College has so strongly appealed to my imagination, and has been to me so full of heart interest as the story that by request, I now give to the college. It is the story of how Grandma Dumville of sweet and blessed memory, arose to the rescue of the college in its hour of greatest peril.

The annual session of the Illinois Conference was convened in Jacksonville in any early year of the eventful sixties, 1861 or 1862. Perhaps when this incident took place. The discharge of routine business had progressed until it brought to the consideration of the conference, the financial report of the new college for women. The report indicated that earnest effort had been made to secure funds with which to cancel the indebtedness on the beautiful building that had been erected. But solicitations had met with inadequate response and the building was liable to be sold in order to satisfy the demand of creditors who were unable to carry the burden longer, and were discouraged regarding financial prospects. With discussion of the report opened, the atmosphere of the conference chamber was tense with anxiety and heavy with disappointment over the unfavorable situation.

Hope seemed to have departed. Then it was that a new pleasant voice, with an accent somewhat Scotch drew quick attention, and standing on the conference floor, a comely lady with the glow of Christ's spirit in her face awaited the Bishop's recognition.

I was not there, but clearly can I see Mrs. Dumville as she stood; for from my father, who was present, I have repeatedly heard the story; and a year or two after that time I came to know her well as an elect lady in my father's parish in Carlinville. And, during three happy years we spent there, Grandma Dumville, as she was affectionately known, was ever a welcome visitor when she was at our home, and every Sabbath morning was an eagerly awaited vision in the church when she entered, leading Major Burke's two pretty children. And now, having made this detour, I wish to make more complete her picture before I return to the conference story, for I would have you see her just before she looked standing in that serious concourse.

Mrs. Jemina Dumville was an English woman, a bit more in height than was her sovereign majesty Queen Victoria, which is not saying that she was tall; but she possessed an easy dignity that suggested intelligence and strength. Her smooth face was surrounded with the lacy fringe of a white cap that showed daintily even under the brim of her black bombazine poke bonnet, and a white neckerchief was drawn in soft folds across her comfortable bosom. Just so did I often see her. And this is the picture I wish you to have in mind as you see her standing on the conference floor, in an ecclesiastical assembly in which never before had a woman's voice been heard pleading the need of an educated Christian womanhood and with earnest appeal for the continued life of the college.

Then tenderly she urged, "Your daughters must be educated; my daughters must have an education. We must keep the school. It must not be sold. It must not be sold." And in conclusion falling into her Scotch habit, "We mun gie; all mun gie; I have a hundred dollars in Mr. Chestnut's bank in Springfield and I will gie it, and you mun all gie."

And this from a woman with no wealth, who held an honored place in Major Burke's house, mothering his two little children who have been left motherless when the hand of death had opened the door and entered their home.

Can you not picture the entire scene, the Bishop, Peter Cartwright, Dr. Akers, Dr. Prentice, the Rutledge clergy? And do you not share that feeling that surged through the hearts of those who listened, those who with valiant effort had founded the college and now had been so strangely moved by the new voice that had sounded the note of hope and courage and triumph to come.

Many were the moist eyes, and tears unashamed coursed down the cheeks of men as they came to their feet making pledges; pledges that in many instances would claim the larger part of their meagre and often only partially paid salary. But the aggregate of those edges was sufficient. The college building with its stately columns rising from the stone floor of the portico, and doors standing open to eager students, was not to be sold.

Conference adjourned. Ministers went to their appointed fields of labor ready to undertake the fulfillment of the new obligation voluntarily assumed. Heroically were new tasks added to those required in the discharge of pastoral labors. New economies were imposed in the frugal life of the parsonage and sacrifices that hurt were borne uncomplainingly through the one who struggled to make the depleted income stretch for enough to make ends meet in the closing circle of the year, found it a painful achievement not always possible.

Thus was the college saved, and so ends the story of Grandma Dumville's part in perpetuating the life that glowed with a flickering flame. She had her heart's desire in the education of her daughters in the college halls, and from her home in the glory land, I feel that she rejoices in the beacon light that Illinois Woman's College now holds aloft to the young womanhood of this great territory of the Mississippi Valley.

BUSINESS MEN OF JAPAN EAGER FOR RUSSIAN TRADE

Tokio, (AP)—Business and professional men of Japan who have been badly hit by the failure of Japan and Russia to negotiate a commercial treaty have started movements to secure another conference between representatives of the two countries. The Associated Chambers of Commerce have passed resolutions urging the resumption of relations with Russia, and, besides pressing their own government, propose sending a delegation to Moscow to carry on unofficial negotiations with the Soviet.

A plan has been formulated by a body of prominent business men, scholars, politicians and others to organize a large party to travel through Russia and observe political, economical and social conditions obtaining in that country.

Meanwhile, relations between the two countries have not been improved by some recent incidents. The latest is the refusal of the Soviet to allow the Japanese consul at Vladivostok to send a cable to his government in code. This step was taken because of the refusal of the Japanese government to allow Adolf Joffe, the Soviet delegate, to send code messages to his government during his visit to Japan.

WILL BE MARRIED AT WRIGHTS SOON

Announcement Made of Coming Nuptials of Earl Johnson and Miss Lena Holland—Aged Greene County Woman Observes Birthday—News Notes

White Hall, June 7.—The marriage of Earl Johnson and Miss Lena Holland is announced to take place in the Baptist church at Wrights at 11 o'clock Saturday, the officiating clergyman being Rev. W. R. Johnson of Winchester. Both are engaged in teaching school, the former at Dalton City and the latter at Waverly. The groom is the son of David Johnson of Wrights, and the bride resides with relatives at Waverly, her parents being deceased.

Good Old Age

Pursuing the usual duties in her home and garden, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan today observed the 86th anniversary of her birth, the only unusual manifestations being gifts of flowers and expressions of well wishes from friends and neighbors, while callers were noted throughout the day. Mrs. Duncan resides on Carrollton street with her daughters, the well known Duncan sisters, and retains good health and the use of all her faculties. She is a native of Kentucky, her maiden name being Kitzmiller, and following her marriage with Thomas Duncan came to Illinois in 1855, locating at Girard until coming to White Hall about 35 years ago, and here Mr. Duncan died, he being a well known hotel man.

LATEST NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

RICKARD COMPLETES CARD FOR JULY 12

NEW YORK, June 7.—Tex Rickard today completed the card for the heavyweight boxing show at Boyle's Thirty Acres, Jersey City, on the night of July 12, when Luis Angel Firpo of the Argentine, and Jess Willard former champion will meet in a twelve round match to determine a challenger for the title held by Jack Dempsey.

Floyd Johnson of Des Moines and Jack McAuliffe II, of Detroit, the men conquered by Willard and Firpo in the heavyweight carnival at the Yankee Stadium for the benefit of the Milk fund several weeks ago have been matched in the twelve round semi-final contest.

Two eight round encounters have been arranged the first between Jim Herman of Omaha and Cliff Kramer of the Pacific Coast and the other between Young Bob Fitzsimmons of Newark, N. J., and Tom Roper of Chicago.

CY WILLIAMS OUT OF GAME SEVERAL DAYS

ST. LOUIS Mo., June 7.—"Cy" Williams of the Philadelphia Nationals this season's home run king, who retired in the fourth inning of today's game with St. Louis after complaining of a pain in his back, told the Associated Press tonight he probably would be out of the game several days.

Williams stated he felt a slight pain while practicing before the game and that the pain became more acute right along. He said he did not know what caused the ailment.

Do you know Baseball?

by Billy Evans

QUESTIONS
ONE—If the pitcher in the act of delivering the ball to the batsman, accidentally strikes his leg and the ball drops to the ground, how is it regarded?

TWO—Manager substitutes a southpaw for a right-handed pitcher, with a left-handed batter up. After the pitcher gets two strikes on the batter the manager sends in a right-handed hitter. Can the manager of the team in the field then change pitchers if he so desires?

THREE—Outfielder in making a play on a runner at third hits amply with the ball, deflecting it into foul territory. Runner tries to score and is thrown out at the plate. What about it?

FOUR—Is it necessary for the team in the field to make an appeal to have the umpire call a balk?

FIVE—In trying to get a runner at second the catcher's arm comes into contact with the umpire as he starts his throw, the ball going wild and the runner reaching third. What is the correct decision?

Answers:
ONE—The fact that it is an accident is given no consideration. Such a play is ruled a balk.

TWO—A batsman can be removed at any time, but when a pitcher is sent into the game he must pitch until a batsman has either been retired or reaches first.

THREE—The ball is in play in this case, in fact, is always in play when the umpire is actually hit by a thrown ball.

FOUR—It is not necessary to make an appeal in order to have the umpire call a balk. It is up to the umpire to render an immediate decision when he believes the pitcher has so offended.

FIVE—If the umpire back of the plate interferes with the catcher in making a play the ball becomes dead and the runners are sent back to their original bases.

Critics Compare Grimm With Sisler

PIRATES' YOUNG FIRST SACKER IS SENSATION OF THE NATIONAL LEAGUE!

By BILLY EVANS
When Kitty Bransfield faded, Barney Dreyfuss started on a journey that covered 15 years before he found a competent first baseman for his Pittsburgh Pirates. He expended a fortune, but without results until he found a star for $3500.

Charles J. Grimm, who received a major league trial at the age of 18, represents Dreyfuss' latest first baseman investment.

From the days of Bransfield until the arrival of Grimm, the owner of the Pirates spent close to $100,000 for first base material. The investments include Nealon from the Pacific coast, Jack Flynn, Bill Abstein, Fred Hunter, Ed Koney, Victor Salier, Fred Mollwitz and others.

Grimm was with the Pirates before he became a senior. He was born at St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 25, 1899, and reported to the Pirates in the spring of 1919.

Compares With Sisler

An inside slant on Grimm's first basing and his general all-round ability was presented by Jim Bagby recently. Bagby, an American Leaguer for years, saw the brilliant George Sisler play. He is with the Pirates this season and he has watched Grimm daily.

"I may open an argument," remarked Bagby recently, "but Sisler surpasses Grimm only in base running and a bit in his hitting. In fielding Grimm is the equal of Sisler in doing everything else and is constantly improving."

"I have never seen a first baseman throw with such accuracy while flying in the air as Grimm. He reaches grounders going to his right and with a sort of a hurdle tosses the ball down to Maranyville, waist high to force runners."

"He is one of the few first basemen to go over to the third base side of the plate, field a bunt on an intended sacrifice and catch the runner going to third."

On Long Hitting Streak
"This kid is one of those ball players you don't read much about, but who is a star in his profession."

Grimm started the season with a remarkable batting spurt, hitting safely in his first 25 games. Sixteen more and he would have equaled the modern safety record.

CHARLES GRIMM

The nearest approach to his achievements this year were those of Harry Heilmann of Detroit, with a safe hitting mark for 21 games.

Bill McKeechne has Grimm in seventh place in the hitting order, not because he is a weak hitter but because, as he puts it, "I like to have a good hitter down there and Charley is the best I know of."

Grimm had but two years of professional experience before he received his diploma. He performed on the semi-pro lots in St. Louis when he was recommended to Connie Mack. The Athletics' manager carried him around for a month, but with Stuffy McInnis on the bag naturally did not have an opening for him.

Grimm lined up with the Cardinals in 1918, but playing in 50 games was transferred to Little Rock in the Southern League. He finished with the Travelers and improved to such an extent in 1919 that he was purchased by the Pirates. Grimm bats left handed, throws with the southpaw, weighs 175 pounds and measures 5 feet 11 inches.

HACK MILLER HERO CUBS-GIANTS CONTEST

Home Run Ties Score! Double Sends Over Winning Runs—Meusel Gets Two Homers Off Alexander

CHICAGO, June 7.—Hack Miller, the strong man, was the hero of a hard fought nip and tuck game today, in which Chicago emerged victor over New York, 9 to 7, and won the series from the world's champions, two games to one. Miller's home run smash into the bleachers in right center tied the count in the seventh after the lead had alternated and his crashing double in the eighth sent two runners home with the deciding runs. Irish Meusel of the Giants made two home runs the first time a player ever made two consecutive circuit drives off Alexander.

MASSINKOFF TO PLAY WIT HINDEES

Manager Frank Smith announced last night that Massinkoff, star of the Illinois School for the Deaf team, would be given a trial with the Hindes.

Massinkoff is a left hand hitter and thrower and has been playing on the infield with the deaf school. He will be used in center field by Smith. He is a good hitter and fast on the bases and with his speed should cover lots of ground in center.

Doyle, a son of the redoubtable Tom, has also been signed by Smith and will be used as relief pitcher. He is said to have considerable stuff and he should be a ball player if he is like Tom.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR RACE AGAINST RECORD

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 7.—Final arrangements for the race against the world's record for the mile on Saturday at the Harvard stadium when Jole Ray has promised to make his superlative effort were completed today. Four mile specialists will attempt to set a pace which will enable the Illinois speedster to break the record of 4 minutes, 12 3-5 seconds, established on the same track in 1915, by Norman S. Taber.

Ray will run scratch while Patrick Kennedy of Yonkers, N. Y., will start from the 35 yard mark. The other competitors and their handicaps follow: Patrick J. Masonry, Boston A. A. 95 yards; John W. Waters, Harvard freshman 100 yards; Walter L. Chapin, Harvard sophomore, 160 yards.

U. OF I. NINE TO MEET CATHOLICS SATURDAY

Urbana, Ill., June 7.—Illinois will close its baseball season at Notre Dame on Saturday. The Catholics requested the appearance of the Illinois as a feature of commencement and Coach Lundgren will oblige, although it will be impossible to muster a full team.

A squad of the seniors on the team will soon be testing their talents with the big leagues. Otto Vogel will try for a berth with the Cubs and Cliff Jackson his eyes on a pitching job with the St. Louis Cardinals. Branch Rickey also will take a look at Captain Stewart, Hallstrom, Dougherty and Peden. Peden was a member of the varsity until this season when he was barred because of previous competition at Lombard.

Coach Lundgren does not advise any of his men to try professional ball unless their ability is so outstanding that they can stick in the big show and earn a stake that will let them start business or a profession before they are cast off. It is regarded as probable that some of the Illinois graduates have talent that entitles them to consideration by the big league managers.

BARNYARD GOLF GAME SUNDAY

Next Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds a very unusual event will take place. A championship game of horseshoes will be played between Harry Way and William Moss. The match is scheduled for 2:30 and will be open to the public.

ROMMEL RETURNS TO FORM, BROWNS LOSE

Holds Opponents Hitless for Six Innings After They Had Scored Five Runs Off of Heilmach

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Eddie Rommel returned to old time form today and for six innings held the St. Louis Browns hitless. The result was another victory for Philadelphia by the score of 8 to 5. The visitors made all their runs in the third off Heilmach, two homers aiding in the scoring. The home team rallied behind Rommel and tied up the score in the fourth and then forged ahead.

ROODHOUSE TEAM SIGNS NEW MEN

Three Men From Alton Blues Will Play There the Rest of Season—Open Series with Winchester Sunday.

Roodhouse, Ill., June 7.—The manager of the Nationals, George L. Berry, of this announces several important changes in the lineup beginning with next Sunday Winchester series.

Dude Parker, former first sacker for the Alton Blues, has signed and will hold down that position for the remainder of the season with the Roodhouse aggregation. Parker is one of the best semi-pro initial sackmen, in the state and a steady worker in every department of the game. He hits well and fields his position with accuracy.

The fans of the city have asked for first-class baseball and have not been disappointed at anytime during the present season, as every engagement has proven a winner from the gong and each game was replete with lightning fast work on the diamond and the outfield.

The Nationals have won every game thus far and the opening games with Winchester should prove the best in semi-pro baseball. Sundays victory over the best O'Connells of Springfield has been the best advertisement for the home team as a box of ball players are entitled to rest their laurels in the better semi-pro pastures. At the onset of the 1923 season, the commission advised a cheaper team and made preparation for this move, however, the populace arose en masse and demanded better ball playing, without first investigating, in fact Dame Rumor, spilled the beans before any games were played to the effect Roodhouse would not have the class this season. The old lady guessed wrong. We have the class with a capital C, and are now in the Wagner and Decker, former Alton Blues battery have been secured for the remainder of the midist of some real honest-to-goodness baseball games. present season. he Blues were one of the few teams in the past two years to make the Nationals eat the humble pudding.

FIXED PRICE CONTRACTS HELD ILLEGAL IN KANSAS

Topeka, Kan., (By AP)—The trade term "exclusive agent" has just about been crossed off the Kansas business lexicon through a recent decision of the supreme court. As a result so-called agents' contracts are undergoing a general revision to place them on a more sound basis, dealers assert. The court's decision was that all fixed price contracts be- tween manufacturers, wholesalers, jobbers, and general distributors on the one hand and retail agen- cies on the other, are illegal.

Charles G. Mills of Sedgwick county sued the General Ordnance Company for breach of con- tract. He claimed he had a con- tract as exclusive agent in a given territory to sell the company's tractors at a specified price, and that the company had violated the contract by making deliv- eries within his territory at less than the fixed price. Both the lower court and the supreme court held that such contract was illegal and therefore the agent had no standing in court.

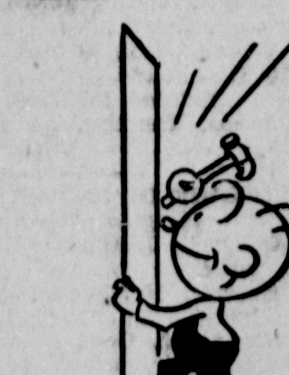

TIRE buying need not be a matter of bargaining or of risk. You can have every assurance of good value, good service, and a square deal. All you have to do is to buy your tires where you see the Goodyear Service Station Sign. There is one on our place of busi- ness in this town.

As Goodyear Service Station Dealers we sell and recom- mend the new Goodyear Cords with the beveled All-Weather Tread and back them up with standard Goodyear Service.

JOHN A. WILLIAMSON

"If I had the names of all the people who are suffering now as I suffered, I would write each one and tell them how Tanlac com- pletely ended my long-standing rheumatism and stomach trou- ble," recently declared John A. Williamson, 302 Broadway, Vin- cennes, Ind.

"What little I forced myself to eat seemed to form a lump and caused awful pains in the pit of my stomach. Rheumatic pains would shoot through my back and shoulders and I could not sleep but an hour or two a night. In fact, I suffered both day and night and got so I could hardly drag myself to and from work."

"Tanlac put me right back on my feet. I'm always hungry now and enjoy my meals, for I don't have a particle of stomach trou- ble any more, sleep all night long and haven't a trace of rheu- matism or any other ailment. Tanlac always gets my highest praise."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for consti- pation. For sale everywhere.

THE WAY TO SUCCESS

Fear nothing in the world when you are right. Be scrupulously honest. Pay your bills and prove to the world that honor and integrity are your greatest assets. Be something other than putty and straw. Let it be known that there is some iron in you. The less a man does, the less he wants to do; the greater efforts he puts forth, the more he can and will do. A man who is master of himself has also master- ed the secret of success. Never dodge difficulties; meet them, greet them, beat them. Form such habits as will crystalize into victories. Daily do something that is hard. It stores up energy. Be positive; indecision is listening for the com- mand to retreat. where clouds obscure the vision. There never was inspiration for doing anything

County, Illinois DELINQUENT TAX LIST For the Year 1922

The following is a transcript of delinquent lands, village and city lots and railroad property upon which the taxes and special assessments are now due and unpaid for the year 1922, as returned by T. O. Wright, Sheriff and Ex-Officio Collector, Morgan County, Illinois, on the 8th day of June, A. D. 1923.

The cost of each tract of land is 86 cents; on each village or city lot, or fraction thereof, is 69 cents. When Personal property tax is added to that on real estate, the fact is indicated by the letter "P" following the tract to which such personal property tax is added. Total tax, special assessments, interest and costs for 1922 and former years are shown.

All special assessments include interest on all deferred installments up to January 1st, 1923.

WHEAT FAILS TO HOLD PRICE UPTURNS

CHICAGO, June 7.—Influenced by weakness in the corn market and by prospective delay in settlement of the German reparations issue wheat failed today to hold upturns in price. Closing quotations on wheat were unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to be lower with July $1.10½ to $1.10½ and September $1.09½ to $1.09½. Corn lost 1½ to 1½c, oats closed at 3c decline to a shade advance and provisions at 5c to 15c gain.

At the opening and at various subsequent times the wheat market showed an upward trend chiefly as a result of reports that excessive rain had caused damage by rust in Oklahoma and Kansas.
With the new crop nearly ready for harvest in parts of Oklahoma, traders were more disposed to pay attention to weather reports than for some time past, but the buying lacked volume except on downturns in price. Evidence that some of the most active recent purchasers of corn were taking to the bear side of the corn market had an evident deterrent effect on wheat bulls altho some of the selling of corn was against simultaneous purchase of wheat.

Reports that the German reparations note was indicative and that even at best it would apply to mean that interchanges and perhaps a general economic conference had a further depressing effect in wheat market. On the other hand gossip that 500,000 bushels of wheat is to be loaded out of here to go east counted as something of an offset. Besides liberal shipments east from Duluth were indicating and the seaboard reported 300,000 bushels worked for Europe including some old crop hard winters.

Enlarged receipts of corn here and reports that corn was being consigned to Kansas City from Nebraska points led to a decided increase in selling pressure in the corn market. The oats market took its cue mainly from wheat.
Packers buying gave firmness to provisions despite weakness of corn and hogs.

SHOWS INTEREST NOW IN C. P. & ST. L. PLIGHT

St. Louis Newspaper Points Out Losses Which Will Come If Order to Scrap Road Is Carried Out.

Under a Springfield date line the following article with reference to the C. P. & St. L. appeared recently in the St. Louis Times:

A battle of the people for instead of against a railway system serving them is the unusual phase of a transportation situation in Illinois, in which St. Louis is beginning to take a lively interest, because of the discovery that this city's interest are vitally concerned in the struggle.

And, in waging their campaign the people interested have arrayed against them, in one way or another, the Interstate Commerce Commission, the receivership of the rail line over which warfare is beginning, and possibly its officials.

The system is the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis, with a trackage of 247 miles, some valuable franchises and terminals being also a part of the property, which has a bonded debt of about $3,000,000—not the entire value of the system, but more than what it was worth when the debts were incurred.

Would Cripple Many Industries And, because the management and receivership declare the road never can be made to pay its way, the Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered the property "scrapped."

That will wipe out of existence an independent railway system some 50 years old, leave many towns along its route with no rail service at all, cripple industries now operating in those communities, and bring such other hardships to the general public in the territory as causes the situation to be called "a tragedy" by some of the most prominent and public men of Illinois.

"Why," declared H. M. Pindell, editor of the Peoria Journal and Transcript, at a meeting of newspaper men at Springfield "the thing is unthinkable. This line must not be discontinued. I think I voice the opinion of most of the people along the route, and of those elsewhere acquainted with the situation, when I declare to you that it shall not be destroyed."

Ownership by Peoria Suggested That was the sentiment of the meeting yesterday, which was made up of editors of newspapers in the Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis Railway territory. And, out of their conference came a plan for action to avert the destruction of the railroad, of all the phases of the project are yet completed, but some of the suggestions to be acted upon are:

Obtain postponement of the Interstate Commerce Commission's ruling.

Urge the courts to name a new receivership.

Endeavor to obtain a new set of officers for the road.

Ask shippers along the line to petition the Illinois Public Utilities Board for a slight advance in rates for the railway. If this step seems necessary, as the movement to save the property progresses.

Make the people of all the territory fully acquainted with the status of Chicago, Peoria & St. Louis railway affairs, so they may realize the extent of the disaster represented in the proposed wiping out of the property.

In the end, buy it for the people of the territory.

Better Understanding Sought

It is this publicity endeavor which the publishers were urged to undertake at once. It was freely stated that the public is uninformed as to the troubles of the transportation system, and, therefore, has become unsympathetic because of bad service. It is to create a better understanding, and thus bring about co-operation in the endeavor to save the railway, that efforts of Illinois will immediately bend their energies.

"It will require only a little more than $1,000,000 to take care of the first mortgage bonds," M.

M. Baker, president of the Peoria Association of Commerce, said, "More than that amount will be needed to rehabilitate the line, for its earnings have for years been used to pay interest on the debt instead of to improve equipment. It is for this reason that the property has become run down."

Thomas Rees, publisher of the Illinois State Register, and S. Leigh Call, editor of the Illinois State Journal, both of Springfield, expressed concern for the saving of the road. "They say service is bad," Rees said. "Well, so would our newspaper service be unsatisfactory if we were using 1890 equipment for our 1923 business. I think the road should be kept in operation. It is for us to find a way."

Peddling of Property Feared

It is the belief of the men at yesterday's conference that if the order to scrap the road is carried out, there will be a peddling of portions of the property among other roads, to the certain annihilation of all the value of the franchises and terminals. The East St. Louis terminal is said to be worth $1,000,000. There also are holdings at Springfield and Peoria of much worth.

The officers of the road came in for stern criticism at the hand of the editors yesterday.

"We must find some energetic, practical railroad men to handle this property—men who have faith in themselves and in the line," it was declared by many speakers. "The road has too long been conducted by officers who insisted it never could be made to pay."

AIRPLANES AT $500 FOR BRITISH AMATEUR FLYERS

London, (AP)—Airplane flying promises to become as popular in England as bicycling or motoring. British manufacturers are now perfecting light models of aircraft that will cost little more than a motorcycle. They are fitted with small engines of four horsepower and have a speed of 50 miles an hour. They leave the ground with a few yards run and land at less than 25 miles an hour. The dangers are less formidable than those of the big flying machines, and anyone with a rudimentary knowledge of mechanics can handle the new models.

In an effort further to popularize flying, the British under secretary of State for Air has offered a prize of $2,500 for a light airplane competition confined to British machines with a maximum of 8 horsepower. The cost of the airplane when completed is not to exceed $500. A commendable condition is ability for the machine to be transported a mile by two persons within three hours, the test to include getting out of a field through the ordinary field gate and traveling along an average country road.

The competition is to take place in September over a triangular course of not less than 15 miles, and as the minimum distance which must be flown on the one gallon of gasoline is to be allowed is 50 miles, there will be ample encouragement to produce an economical machine.

BEGIN SWEEPING INVESTIGATION OF BROKERAGE FIRMS

Will Look Into Affairs of New York Curb Market Members

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 8.—State Attorney General Sherman today announced that he and five deputies had begun a sweeping investigation into the affairs of several stock brokerage houses holding membership in the New York Curb market. The announcement was made in connection with the bankruptcy of L. L. Winkelman & Co., largest active house connected with the curb market.

Mr. Sherman said he had conferred with officers of the curb market here this afternoon. "Investigation of other members of the curb will go on," he said. "We began our active campaign a week ago. Several members of the Consolidated Stock Exchange also will be investigated."

Mr. Sherman revealed that his office had in receipt of various complaints begun an inquiry into the affairs of the Winkelman firm last Saturday when books of the firm were subpoenaed.

Failure of the Winkelman company and reported investigation by the curb market of their other houses caused Federal Attorney Banton earlier in the day to extend their investigation of the recent series of failures into general stock brokerage conditions.

The investigation which had already begun into the affairs of four large failures previous to the Winkelman collapse it was stated, would be extended to include inquiry into conditions which caused losses of millions of dollars to thousands of investors. Members of the New York stock exchange with curb connections, it was learned, have brought pressure to bear for a general house cleaning in the curb exchange.

Filing of an involuntary petition in bankruptcy against the Winkelman firm in federal court was the climax of an exciting afternoon around the company's offices during which the doors were closed for a time and then reopened only to be closed again. Charles L. Livingstone was appointed receiver under a bond of $50,000. It was announced by George Gordon, retained as counsel for the bankrupts that a hearing would be held tomorrow morning before Federal Judge Bonney to determine whether the books of the firm are to be retained by the bankrupts or whether they are to go to the receiver. He emphatically denied a report that some of the firm's books had been removed from the office after the announcement of the failure. Liabilities of the firm were unofficially estimated at $1,800,000 and assets at $1,550,000. It was estimated, however, that the company was doing $5,000,000 worth of business with 4,000 customers.

MONTAGNE BROTHERS ARE OUT OF PRISON

(By The Associated Press)
NEWARK, N. J., June 8.—Crouched in the rear seat of a big touring car enclosed with side curtains, the celluloid panels of which had been soaped so that no one could see, William Montagne and Rene Montagne made their exit from the Essex county jail here today when released after serving four months for bootlegging.

A group of newspapermen waiting outside the jail saw two attendants hurriedly push open the doors of the garage adjoining the jail. An instant later a big blue automobile carrying the Montagnes rolled out rapidly, turned the corner and sped off in the direction of New York.

The fourth brother, Montagne made a similar exit when he was released from the same jail two months ago.

The four Montagnes, wealthy New Yorkers, were found guilty in New York on charges of bootlegging and were sentenced to terms in the prison here.

STATE WILL NOW BE ABLE TO DO LOCKPORT WORK

Agreement Reached Between Contending Factions Friday

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 8.—As the result of an agreement between the Sanitary District of Chicago, controlling the Chicago Drainage System, and the Illinois department of public works all obstacles in the path of work on the lock at Lockport, Ill., have been eliminated and the state is ready to advertise for bids for the work.

E. J. Kelly, chief engineer of the sanitary district announced today. "The trustees of the sanitary district at a recent meeting authorized the engineering department to proceed with negotiations with the state and to grant concessions wherever possible," Mr. Kelly said. "We are so strongly in favor of the water-borne smoothed out and the state the advantage at every possible point. All our problems have been smoother out and the state is ready to go ahead with this phase of its waterways development."

Conflicting jurisdiction over certain portions of the water route within the Illinois deep-water system had for some time been a problem to the state engineers in charge of the Lockport work. The recent conferences are said to have eliminated these difficulties relieving the obstacle in the path of the work. The willingness of sanitary district engineers, under Mr. Kelly to grant the "edge" to the state as every possible point is said to have been a considerable factor in the agreement.

PEARL MAKERS ARE INDICTED

(By The Associated Press)
WOODSTOCK, Ill., June 8.—The McHenry county grand jury closed its session here today after returning 29 indictments against Fremont Hoy and his six aides in a pearl manufacturing scheme. Nine additional true bills were returned at the final session of the jury. They covered larceny, embezzlement, conspiracy and confidence game charges. Fremont Hoy, his son Clarence, Joseph Holly and Arthur Peterson were named in one bill charging conspiracy to obtain $20,920 from the Ringwood State bank of which Clarence was president.

J. Varner and H. D. Haley, both of Chicago and Fremont's other son, Kenneth are the other three under indictment. Kenneth and Holly are at liberty on bail. Fremont and Clarence Hoy are in the Woodstock county jail under bonds of $20,000 and $25,000 respectively. Warrants have not been issued for Varner, Haley and Peterson. Those under arrest will be arraigned in court July 24.

WESTERN WOOL MARKETS INACTIVE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Western wool markets were inactive with slight price changes during the week ended June 2, according to reports received by the department of agriculture from its field representatives.

Prices in Utah are about one cent per pound less than for the preceding week, the reports show. The top price for fine wool was 45 cents. Coarser grades sold at 42 cents and some as low as 40 cents. Shearing is now under way in the north coast counties of California. Prices range from 50 to 55 cents for clips in Mendocino county. The situation in Wyoming is reported as quiet with growers inclined to hold out.

TO TAKE UP DWIGHT HOSPITAL SOON

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The hospitalization board will take up soon the question of re-opening the hospital at Dwight, Ill., authorized at its last meeting. A new offer has been received under which the property can be purchased at a price less than the optional purchase price of $300,000 named in the former lease. But Director Hines today would not indicate whether he would recommend acceptance.

CONFERENCE TO BE HELD NEXT FALL

Washington, June 8.—Secretary Davis announced today that his proposed conference of state governors at Mooseheart, Ill., for discussion of child labor legislation would be held in the fall instead of the latter part of June, as originally planned. No definite date has been set.

MONUMENT FOR POPE PIUS X

Rome, June 8.—Pope Pius has decided to inaugurate a monument to Pius X in the Vatican basilica. The ceremonies will take place on the eve of St. Peter's Day, June 28.

Pius X, the 259th pontiff, died in 1914.

CHINESE BANDITS PROMISE RELEASE OF ALL PRISONERS

Letter to That Effect Received from Broker of Shanghai

(By The Associated Press)
TIENTSIN, June 8.—The chief of the Shantung train bandits now holding eight foreign captives in the Pootuku mountain stronghold has promised that the prisoners will be released within four days, according to a letter read today by the French consul here from Emile Gensburger a Shanghai broker, who is among those held.

While the general health of the prisoners was said to be satisfactory the intense heat of the past few days is causing some discomfort. A German priest who has just returned from the bandits' mountain retreat said that the heat and flies were the worst of the captives' troubles at present. He said two of the bandits are lepers.

The attitude of the outlaws toward their foreign prisoners varies according to circumstances some of the bandit guards seem to be willing to do anything for their captives while others indulge in petty tyranny. J. B. Powell, Shanghai newspaper man, held by the brigands, is said to have lost his temper recently and literally knocked out one of the guards who had become offensive. Many of the brigands, unfamiliar with fire arms have nearly caused several tragedies among their comrades by their careless handling of weapons.

The German priest, who is also versed in medicine, earned the good will of the bandit chieftain by attending his sick son. The priest was not allowed to stay in the camp, but was taken to the nearest village.

DEPUTY SHERIFFS FOUND NOT GUILTY

(By The Associated Press)
PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 8.—Deputy Sheriffs Edward Mannison and D. J. Reilly, charged with the murder of Fannie Sellers, organizer for the United Mine Workers of America were found "not guilty" by a jury late today. Mrs. Sellers was shot and killed during the 1919 steel strike.

The verdict of acquittal was reached after 50 minutes of deliberation. In the case of Mannison the verdict was merely a formality the court having instructed the jury to return a verdict of not guilty, holding that the state had not produced testimony connecting him with the death of Mrs. Sellers.

Witnesses for the defense testified that the woman union leader was at the head of a charging mob of men armed with clubs and stones when she was killed. Mannison and Reilly were guards at the Allegheny Steel company's Coal Mines where Mrs. Sellers was killed at the time.

FORMAL OPENING OF LUTHERAN SYNOD

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 8.—Impressive ceremonies tonight marked the formal opening of the sixtieth annual convention of Lutheran Augustana Synod here tonight. President G. A. Brandelle, D. D., Rock Island, opened the session which will continue most of next week. The first business session is scheduled for tomorrow when Dr. Brandelle will present his annual report.

Particular interest hinges on the election of the president tomorrow. Dr. Brandelle, who is a candidate for re-election shows considerable strength. There are five other candidates. They are: Dr. S. G. Ohman and Dr. Mauritz Stolpe, both of New York; Dr. Fyter Peterson, Chicago, president of the Illinois conference; Dr. P. A. Mattson, president of the Minnesota conference and Dr. C. A. Lund, Escanaba, Michigan, secretary of the synodical council.

Carries Body Thru New York Streets

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 9.—Dr. G. B. McAuliffe, was being questioned by police early today (Saturday) concerning the death of Miss Blossom Martin, a nurse whose body was found wrapped in a bundle ready to be thrown into the bay off Staten Island. A Filipino butler employed by the doctor was arrested as he was about to throw the body into the water. At 2:30 o'clock newspaper reporters, detectives and Dr. McAuliffe were locked in the doctor's home and no one was permitted to leave.

At the conclusion of the questioning in Dr. McAuliffe's home police said they believed Miss Martin had been murdered in his house. A bloodspot was found in a bedroom on the top floor which Dr. McAuliffe said the Filipino butler occupied and two green portieres were missing from a room in another part of the house. The nurse's body when examined was wrapped in a green portiere.

Elusgo Lozade, the butler, and Miss Martin had been lovers, Dr. McAuliffe told the police. Lozade who is 31 years old had been in the doctor's employ for about two years. Miss Martin, who did not live in the house, had worked for

CONFERENCE OF GOVERNORS MAY BE POSTPONED

May Have to Await President's Return from Alaska

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The conference of state governors which the president intends to call for a discussion of prohibition enforcement may be postponed until next fall. At the white house today it was said the conference was "somewhat up in the air and that a definite announcement would be forthcoming next week."

Altho President Harding had hoped to have the governors meet here before he leaves on his trip to Alaska, the present sessions of some state legislatures officials said today might force a postponement of the conference at least until after the president returns to Washington. Another factor is the brief time remaining before the president's departure for the west.

Some of the president's advisers are known to favor a postponement of the conference until fall, these officials believing the prohibitionists are working out satisfactorily and that increased cooperation of state officials might be secured by correspondence as well as at a personal conference.

COMMENTS ENSIGN FOR REVERENCE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—A letter from Secretary Denby warmly commending a "public manifestation of reverence for the country's flag was added today to the navy record of Ensign Warren F. Taylor of Ruston, La.

From his seat in the presidential stand during Tuesday's parade of Shriners, Secretary Denby's attention was attracted to the uniformed figure of the ensign in an opposite stand arising as each of the almost innumerable national standards went by and snapping into a regulation salute. His conduct was the more conspicuous because he was the only officer in the stand.

Under navy regulations members of the service are required to salute all colors passing in review whether carried by military or civilian organizations.

JURY UNABLE TO DETERMINE CAUSE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 8.—A coroner's jury which held an inquest over the bodies of seven men fatally hurt in an explosion in the dry starch plant of the Corn Products Refining company at Argo, Ill., on April 20, was unable today to determine the cause of the explosion. The jury decided that the men had come to their deaths from shock and burns due to the explosion and fire which followed in the plants.

CONFIRMS SALE OF RUBBER COMPANY

Cleveland, O., June 8.—The recent sale of the property of the Republic Rubber company of Youngstown for an amount equal to $7,511,000 to interests controlling the Lee Rubber and Tire company of Pennsylvania was confirmed by Federal Judge D. C. Westernhaver late today. The sale price is represented by $5,500,000 in claims against the company, $2,000,000 worth of obligations incurred by the receiver and $11,000 cash.

ENFORCEMENT OF PROHIB LAW WOULD COST $100,000,000

Is Amount Estimated Without Help of New York State

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 8.—Enforcement of prohibition in New York State by federal officers would cost $100,000,000 annually prohibition Director Canfield declared today in a letter to Mayor Hylan, thanking him for his promise of cooperation from local police.

"There are 25,000 peace officers in New York state," Mr. Canfield wrote. "To duplicate this force would cost the government $100,000,000. If this were done in every state it would cost a billion dollars annually."

I accept your assurance of every possible co-operation. The failure of the police officers of New York to actively enforce the federal prohibition act would stimulate and promote other crimes, such as assaults, disorderly conduct, public intoxication and similar crimes which have materially decreased since prohibition.

It is not only a matter of helping the government but of helping yourself. Law defiance is highly contagious and the weakening of law enforcement at one point weakens the entire structure.

"Governor Smith has already issued a warning, in which he said that repeal of the state law did not in the slightest degree lessen the responsibility of peace officers to enforce the Volstead act. I thank you for your promise to enforce this law in the same degree as other laws."

RUNAWAY ELEPHANT GETS BACK HOME

(By The Associated Press)
LANCASTER, Mo., June 8.—After causing consternation in Davis county Iowa where he broke his shackles after balking at continuing with a carnival show which completed its engagement at Palaski, Iowa, Tex. a powerful 18 year old elephant returned to his home here tonight. He was put in a corral by Billy Hall circus owner and a number of circus hands.

Driven by Jim Cunningham, a trainer on horseback, Tex made his way to Hall's headquarters without creating much excitement in the country district thru which he ambled, altho he broke several farm fences over which he moved according to Cunningham.

Hall, formerly a prominent trainer, said that Tex apparently tired of circus work and "thought he was wild again." He was captured without much of a struggle, probably being weary from his journey.

Cunningham added that the elephant was not particular about roads crossing open fields and occasionally crashing thru fences. He traversed a distance of approximately 75 miles, Palaski to Bloomfield and then Lancaster.

FORBID UNIONS TO EXPEL CHURCH MEMBERS

(By The Associated Press)
MOSCOW, June 8.—The leaders of the Russian trade unions have forbidden labor unions to expel members because of church affiliation and have directed that the religious propaganda engaged in by the Unionists be made as antagonizing in the future.

The Moscow clergy meeting under the direction of M. Krassin, by head of the living church council, has called upon the clergy and parishioners to assist the soviet government. The general anti-religious crusade which appears to have reached its climax a month ago is dying out. Unless there are specific reasons the officials now frown upon local movements aimed at closing the churches.

EVANSTON MAN WINS HARVARD PRIZE

Cambridge, Mass., June 8.—It was announced at Harvard university tonight that Marshall A. Best of Evanston, Ill., is the winner of the Lloyd McKim Garrison prize for the best poem by an undergraduate on a subject chosen by a committee of the English department. Best is class poet of the senior class and editorial chairman of the Crimson, the college daily.

DECIDE TO GIVE WOMEN PROMINENT PART IN COUNCILS

Is Reached at Conference of President and Chairman Adams

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Decision to give women a more prominent part in the councils of the Republican party was reached at a conference tonight between President Harding and John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican National committee. The exact nature of the participation was not fully decided upon pending a canvass of members of the national committee by Chairman Adams.

The decision with respect to women was said by Chairman Adams to have been the principal topic of discussion at the conference which lasted for more than an hour altho "about forty other matters were talked over."

Among these were understood to have been the administration world court proposal toward which Mr. Adams has been represented as somewhat cool and the statement issued by the national committee publicity bureau attacking the allied governments for their attitudes in the Rhineland army costs negotiations and so-called "Shanghai" in all seriousness after Secretary Hughes had made a protest to the president. The latter matter, Mr. Adams said, is now a dead issue.

HARDING AUTHORIZES CREATION OF DEFICIT

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Creation of a deficit by the treasury so that the customs service may continue with a full staff has been authorized by President Harding it was announced officially today. The president's authorization means that the New York and Boston customs houses will not have to lay off any of their personnel to keep within appropriations.

The treasury had been unable to find a way to maintain the labor personnel in full force without overdrawn its appropriation for that purpose. The president was informed of the situation he immediately authorized the expenditure of sufficient funds to keep the customs houses in full operation and avoid a serious congestion.

Secretary Mellon has estimated that the deficit will amount to probably $60,000. New appropriations will become available July 1.

INDIANS PAY TRIBUTE TO MOTHER OF WATERS

(By The Associated Press)
SANTA BARBARA, Cal., June 8.—Navajo Indians Hosnanial Begay (Doers of Deeds) and Maite Ecannie (Wolf Killer) kissed the receding tide on the beach here today, thanked the mother of waters for bringing rain to their lands in Arizona and prayed for further showers.

In the legends of the tribe the seas are not only the mother of waters but also the mother of all the Navajos and it is fitting that when after a member of that tribe sees the ocean for the first time he should offer his tribute and sacrifice.

Begay and Ecannie have been here two days as delegates to the league of the southwest conference but they religiously kept away from the beach until today so they did not previously see the ocean, ancient mother of their tribe. This morning in the presence of a crowd of pale faces they offered sacrifices of corn and flower pollen scattered on the soft turf and then kissed the receding foam on the beach.

REJECTED LOVER SUES FOR RING

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 8.—Lee Stiles who presented Miss Leona Voris, his former fiancée with an engagement ring which he purchased from her prospective mother-in-law for $1,000, was today awarded $1,000 by a jury in his suit against Miss Voris and her mother for $1,500 which he claimed covered the purchase price of the ring and interest on his money from 1921 when his romance ended. Miss Voris, he claimed broke the engagement shortly after he gave her the ring and refused to return the ring or the money.

"That's awful," Miss Voris exclaimed when told of the jury's verdict. "How cheap a man must be to make such a fuss about $1,000. If I were a man I certainly wouldn't do it."

Her attorneys made a motion for a new trial.

HEAT WAVE HITS YUKON TERRITORY

Dawson, June 8.—A heat wave struck the Yukon Territory yesterday and thermometers registered 91 in the shade. This is the warmest temperatures with one exception registered since the dominion weather bureau was established here 21 years ago. The exception occurred in July 10 last year when the thermometer stood at 92.

HOUSE SETS STAGE FOR WEEK OF HARD WORK, ADJOURNS

Members Spend Most of Afternoon in Advancing Bills

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 8.—Setting the stage for one week of hard work, the house of representatives spent most of this afternoon advancing bills to first and second readings, and then adjourned, until Monday afternoon.

Attendance dwindled steadily thruout the day and by 2 P. M. so few members were present that one bill would have failed of passage because there were not the necessary 77 votes available had not Speaker Shanahan postponed its consideration. Thereafter the house followed routine which did not require a quorum.

Insurance bills, of which there are dozens in the two houses, constituted a big part of the measures considered. Several were passed and advanced. One, by Representative Bandy, Republican, Marion, which would have required fire insurance companies in event of a loss by the policy holder to pay the full amount named in the policy, fell short of the needed majority and was lost.

The score of members present had some fun with Representative Lyon, Republican, Chicago, in connection with advancing to third reading his bill to give assembly members police powers. A judiciary committee amendment to allow the law makers to carry firearms was tabled with Mr. Lyon's consent. He insisted that his bill be taken seriously but the other members continued to direct humorous remarks at it.

Speaker Shanahan in all seriousness asked this question of the Chicago representative: "Do I understand that you have spent eight years in grammar school, four in high school and four in college?"

"And what for—to become a policeman?" the speaker inquired.

The Wright senate bill for a uniform standard of time was referred today to the house judiciary committee, the chairman of which, Chairman Castle of Barrington, Cook county, is arranging hearings on it. With only seven legislative days remaining, Chicago members, who are nearly a unit in favor of daylight saving, are confident the bill has no chance to succeed in the house.

Mr. Castle said tonight he has not set a date for any hearing, but that those who want to express themselves before the committee would be given the opportunity.

LOTS OF MOONSHINE SEIZED DURING MAY

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, June 8.—During May, 6,155 gallons of "moonshine" were seized by federal prohibition operatives, William D. Moss, acting director for Illinois announced in a statement today. Of this amount, the report said, 1,584 gallons were destroyed and 4,571 gallons saved for evidence in trials that have not yet taken place. Further seizures mentioned in the statement include 826 gallons of malt liquors, 455 gallons of wine and 13,755 gallons of moonshine, mash.

Fourteen automobiles were seized their value being estimated at $11,250.

The total amount of property seized in the enforcement of the prohibition laws, the report said is $16,260.

There are at present 72 field agents working thru the state of Illinois, with approximately forty of them working out of this office," Mr. Moss said.

TWO ACCIDENTS FRIDAY AT LITERBERRY

Noah Braner, who lives near Little Indian, was painfully injured late Friday afternoon at the saw mill north of Literberry. A large slab was thrown in such a way that it struck Mr. Braner the side, inflicting a very painful injury.

The injured man was taken to a hospital in Jacksonville, and it was not possible last night to ascertain the full extent of his injuries.

Lee Alvin Decker, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Decker fell while at play Friday and cut a deep gash in his head. He was taken to a physician to have the wound dressed and was reported to be resting comfortably last night.

SUGAR SITUATION

Washington, June 8.—The sugar situation was declared by a spokesman for President Harding today to be curing itself and is likely to continue to decrease in its serious aspects if present measures are continued. The government it was said has nothing new to offer in the situation.

While the dry enforcement law has been repealed in New York and the wets have gained a victory in Wisconsin, in the Illinois legislature it is noteworthy that the dry forces are still in control.

Each day now gives further assurance of the importance of the program planned for next Friday in connection with the dedication of the soldiers hospital and convention of Spanish War Veterans. Many notables will be in Jacksonville on that day and everything points to the greatest parade that this city has seen in many years.

Now the erection of a $2,000,000 state office building in Chicago is proposed, both to assemble the offices in one building and to save rentals. If Chicago influence in the legislature continues to increase, it may be just as well to have the whole capital in the big city.

Over in Decatur 100 citizens are to be appointed by the mayor as special policemen, and will serve without pay. They are to make a special drive against mashers and traffic law violators, and to help meet other conditions which the regular police force unaided cannot handle. This movement is patterned after the Jacksonville idea.

GERMAN IN THE SCHOOLS

The Supreme Court holds that it is unconstitutional for any state to enact a law requiring the use of the English language as the whole medium of instruction in secular subjects. German, therefore, becomes admissible once more, in states that have barred that language by law.

The decision, curiously enough, seems to have been determined chiefly from the standpoint of teachers rather than pupils—the right of German teachers to continue making their living by teaching German, and to be so employed if parents want them. But the court adds that in its opinion "mere knowledge of the German language cannot be reasonably regarded as harmful," which is true enough.

As Justice Holmes points out in his dissenting opinion, however, it is very desirable that children of foreign-born parents who hear only some other language spoken at home should hear English spoken in school. How else are they to learn the language of their own country? And for this purpose the teaching of standard school subjects in English has been accepted as the obvious and natural means.

The whole question becomes one for each community to decide for itself. All that the court has said is that no laws may be made against the teaching of other languages. Local patriotism, as a rule, can be trusted to do the right thing to make the product of the public school genuinely American.

The first batch of Coca-Cola was put on the market back in 1886—only 25 gallons of syrup, which sold for $25. The Wall Street Journal comments that "the present company paid the original owners 20 million dollars for Coca-Cola goodwill."

"Goodwill" is another word for reputation. Reputation, in modern business, is the direct result of three things—merit of product, methods of doing business, and advertising.

Coca-Cola, of course, has been about as thoroughly advertised as is humanly possible. The $25 realized from the first Coca-Cola sale, was immediately invested in advertising, for which the first bill was $46. From that small seed grew 20 million dollars worth of "goodwill."

It pays to advertise. Most of the big advertisers started in a small way. Venturing cautiously into the water, they soon struck out for the deep spots. They found that it pays to advertise.

The William Wrigley Company's first advertising appropriation was $32—its entire capital—written John Allen Murphy in Printer's Ink magazine. The L. E. Waterman Company's first ad bill was only $62.50. Hupp Motor Corporation started with $100.65 of publicity. The Borden Company started with an advertising appropriation of $513.75, back in 1890; today it spends for advertising nearly a million dollars a year. So on, a long list. It pays to advertise. PUBLIC INVITED TO SEE GAME AT I. S. D.

Mutes Will Cross Bats with Hyde Park High School This Afternoon—Reunion Programs Prove Entertaining and Attractive

The annual reunion at the School for the Deaf yesterday was a highly successful affair and carried out to the letter with the exception of the balloon ascension which had to be postponed until this evening on account of the balloon not having arrived.

After the chapel meeting in the morning the guests were treated to a fine dinner after which they enjoyed the sights of Jacksonville in the afternoon in autos which were very kindly donated by the local Chamber of Commerce. This was followed by races and sports on the athletic field and after their supper they were entertained in the chapel by a special program at which Stanley Bondick, a pupil at the school gave an exhibition in sleight-of-hand and legerdemain which was equal of any professional. This was followed at ten o'clock last night by a frat smoker and "Goat" initiation for frats only. As the sign in the main hall reads "Of course you can sit up all night and chat if you want to," from appearances last night a great many were preparing to live up to most of the instructions.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the baseball team will meet the Hyde Park high school team and this game is open to the public and a large crowd is requested from the town people who will be treated to some real baseball. The school lineup for the game will be: Dillard, cf. (Capt.); Rose, 3b; Massinkoff, ss; Schrader, 1f; Mannen, 1b; Cole, rf; Miller, 2b; E. Carlson, c; Sellers or G. Carlson, p. Clark of the local Indians will hold the indicator. The Hyde Park team will arrive on the Wabash at 6:30 this morning and will be guests of the school here during the day.

The balloon ascension will occur this evening at 6:45 o'clock from the grounds at the school.

VERDICT UPHELD IN ZACHARY CASE

Judge E. S. Smith Denied Motion Made for New Trial—Time Permitted for Appeal to Supreme Court.

Judge E. S. Smith yesterday denied a motion made for a new trial in the case of Samuel Zachary, found guilty of the murder of Luther Crawford. The finding was made by Judge Smith in the Scott county circuit court at Winchester, where the trial was held several weeks ago.

Argument was made earlier in the week on behalf of Mr. Zachary by Attorneys Hairgrove and Wilson, maintaining errors in instructions and record, which they believed justified a rehearing of the case. State's Attorney Robinson upheld the position of the prosecution, maintaining that the instructions were properly given. At that time Judge Smith took the matter under advisement and indicated he would make a finding on Friday. Accordingly Judge Smith made the order denying the motion for a new trial. The defendant's attorneys gave notice of an appeal to the supreme court and have thirty days within which to perfect such an appeal, a stay of execution having been granted.

SCHOOL'S over. School's over!

The blue's in the vault of the sky;

To books and to pencils

The children are shouting, "Goodby."

"Goodby to arithmetic, spelling and grammar,

Oh happy the freedom and joyous the clamor

When school days are finished and through!

The broad fields are calling

With magic enthralling.

The swimming hole's placid and cool;

The children are streaming

Away from the prison of school.

"Goodby study, goodby rule,

Goodby teacher, darned old fool."

Teacher smiles a bit, may be,

At this childish cruelty;

Knowing, as wise teachers know,

That the kids don't mean it so.

FOR the teacher too can feel

She would like to shout and squeal,

"No more note books to correct,

No more spelling to inspect,

No more teaching stubborn dubs,

No more taming wild young cubs;

Goodby pupils—darned young fools!

Goodby all that goes with schools."

"Darned young fools!" The kids would know,

Teacher didn't mean it so,

But was simply glad as they,

She could also run away.

SCHOOL'S over! School's over!

The bloom's on the clover,

The blue's in the vault of the sky!

To school books and pencils

Goodby! Hallelujah! Goodby!

ROLL OF AGED CALLED AT WHITE HALL

Many Residents Now Past Eighty Year Mark—Music Club Entertained—News Notes.

White Hall, June 8.—The annual roll of those in this vicinity 80 years of age and upward is up for revision at this season, and it shows that a number of them have passed away since a year ago. The list as now presented is as follows:

Mrs. Mary Gibler, 93.
Mrs. William H. Benear, 91.
Mrs. Mary Sloan, 90.
Mrs. Eliza Smith, 89.
Mrs. Sally Griswold, 87.
Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan, 86.
George Newton, 85.
Mrs. Mary Vanderheyden, 85.
Francis M. Winters, 85.
Wesley C. Chapin, 85.
Mrs. Ellen Clark, 84.
Mrs. Mary Halbert, 84.
Mrs. Nancy J. Henderson, 84.
Dr. A. W. Foreman, 83.
Henley Wilkinson, 83.
Mrs. Martha James, 83.
J. R. Robinette, 83.
Mrs. Delilah Duncan, 83.
Mrs. D. Culbertson, 83.
Mrs. Anna Pritchard, 82.
Mrs. Helen E. Ruckel, 82.
Mrs. Alonzo Allen, 81.
Mrs. Sherman Ford, 81.
Mrs. Nellie Vedder, 81.
John J. Moynihan, 81.
Mrs. Anna Dillman, 81.
Seth N. Griswold, 80.

Members of the 80-year fraternity who were listed a year ago and who died during the interim include James S. Brooks, 91; Mrs. Margaret Sykes, 89; Mrs. Rachel Barnes, 87; Sherman Ford, 85; Mrs. Jane Lawson, 96; W. D. Rowe, 84; Mrs. Caroline Meisenbach, 84; Mrs. H. B. Sadler, 83; Pbediah Denham, 83; I. C. Burbridge, 80; Mrs. M. A. McCraegen, 80.

Entertained Music Club

Twenty two members of the music club were entertained Thursday evening by Mrs. Mayme Winters in her home on East Bridgeport street, and the members listened to the rendition by Mrs. Winters of a piano number composed by her. This formally placed the present generation of White Hall in the class of possessing a musical composer as the past generation is encouraged by the compositions of Mrs. John Carney and Mrs. Flora Hamilton Cassell.

A great deal of merriment was created as each member responded to roll call with a musical stunt or reading. The hostess provided refreshments.

Business occupied the attention of the members in an important way. The tree at the soldier's monument in memory of James M. Lyons is under the care of this club, and it has been marked in an ingenious manner by sinking the marker in a table of stone and burying it in the ground with the inscription underneath. This will preserve the record indefinitely at the tree. Mrs. Ward Hull, the president appointed Mrs. E. C. Pearce, Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Hal Nevius a committee to prepare a float for the Fourth of July parade. Mrs. Danforth Potts was admitted to membership.

News Notes
Mrs. C. W. Henry of Loveland, Colorado, who is visiting in White Hall, Beardstown and Kincaid, states that her son Hal will accompany Hon. C. J. Moynihan to St. Louis, where the latter is to speak before the Rotary international gathering on the 19th, and that the two will come on to White Hall. President Harding is expected to address this convention on the 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Chapin, of Jacksonville, and C. B. Powell, of Springfield, the later being accompanied by Trainmaster Innis of the C. and A., were visitors this week. The Chapins are more reasonable in thus paying respects to old friends, but this is the first time Powell has set foot on White Hall soil for thirty years, and he was taken to task by his friends for such delinquency. His punishment was suspended on promise that he would make a formal visit on both the Fourth of July and the dedication of the new library. His father, the late Isaac Powell, was one of the original directors of the White Hall library organization. Mr. Powell is beginning to figure in official circles of the C. and A.

CLASS BANQUET IS HELD AT WINCHESTER

Junior-Senior Spread Is Given
Friday Evening in High School Building—Eighty-four Present at Party

Winchester, June 8.—The Junior-Senior banquet was given this evening in the corridor of the community high school. The long table, where eighty-four were seated, was beautifully decorated in white roses and was overtopped with a canopy of green and white. Favors and place cards were used. The elaborate menu was prepared by the home economics department of the school as follows:

Fruit cocktail, creamed chicken patties, new potatoes and peas, pocket rolls and butter, olives and pickles, mist ice, frozen fruit salad, cheese wafers, green and white brick ice cream, angel food cake, coffee and nuts.

Miss Eileen Woodall, president of the junior class, was toastmistress, her toast being "To the Seniors." Miss Alma Corrie, president of the senior class, gave a "Toast to the Juniors."

Coach Vane Rutherford had the topic "Playing the Game." The Principal, Miss Lois Coultas, had the subject "Incidents." Supt. C. W. Smith had the farewell toast on "Parting of the Ways." At the close of the program the party repaired to the legion hall, where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Miss Lucile Bear of Champaign is the guest of Mrs. Sybil Fox.

Misses Mary and Barbara Owing left today for Normal, where they will attend summer school.

Miss Virginia Hains further arrived home Friday noon from Nashville, Tenn., where she has been attending the Ward Belmont school during the past winter.

Miss Vera Wardner expects to leave Saturday for her home in Chicago.

SEE HOPE OF HARD ROAD SOUTH OF CITY

The county commissioners are hopeful that a six-mile stretch of hard road to the south of Jacksonville may be constructed this year. Efforts will be made to secure the right of way from land owners, and it is hoped to have the road completed by Jan. 1. The law requires a right of way ten feet wider than the present road. This would mean a strip of five feet on each side, which it is hoped the farmers will donate in order to get the road without delay.

BACK IN THE ARMY

Drum Major Walter Henry Thomas, shown above, is probably the oldest man in the military service of the country. He served during the Civil war, when Sheridan made his famous midnight ride to Winchester. After many years of military inactivity, Thomas applied for re-enlistment and at seventy-three years of age signed up again.

THE SPIRIT OF PIONEERS

In Mrs. Lambert's story of yesterday about how the Illinois Woman's College was saved in its early history by the appeal of Grandma Danville and the sacrificial pledges of the Preachers and Laymen, she was too modest to tell how her father paid the subscription made that day. The college authorities sent out men to collect the subscriptions and when they called at Dr. Short's parsonage, he had nothing with which to pay the debt except the family horse which he rode on his circuit and the cow which was a partial support of the family, but he collected the sacrifice and gave the collectors the horse and the cow. As they were led away, the mother with her children clinging to her dress watched them go while the father walked the floor with deep anxiety.

Another one of our town's women, Mrs. T. H. Rapp, whose father was Rev. George Rutledge, tells of how her father made a subscription at the same time and when he came to pay the subscription, he sold the little home to meet the obligation.

Thus by the sacrificial giving of the early pioneers of Illinois, was Illinois Woman's College saved. Thus it has been written indelibly with blood into the history of Christian education of Illinois. With such examples of noble sacrifice as these for our heritage, friends of Illinois Woman's College, in these more prosperous days will not plead poverty and inability, but will stand by her in her time of need, and further on her triumphant way. Already a resident of New York State, who has no interest in Jacksonville excepting his vital interest in Illinois Woman's College, which has increased each year, has made a subscription of $25,000. If we knew the reverses through which this good man has passed the last few years, we might realize what a real sacrifice this means. Surely someone in Jacksonville or vicinity will come and stand by his side and match his princely gift.

CHAPIN HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE CLUB MEETS

Session Held at Home of Mrs.
Clyde Williams This Week—
Other Chapin News

Chapin, June 8.—The Household Science club held a regular meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clyde Williams in Chapin. The roll call was current events and payment of dues. Mrs. Harry Stewart read a paper on "Our Capitol at Springfield." Some change was made in the program of the afternoon and the round table discussion on "Care of Winter Clothing" was postponed until the next meeting date. Several piano selections Miss Helene Markham were very much enjoyed. A pleasant social hour followed the program, and refreshments of ice cream, cake, salted almonds and coffee were served.

The high school Alumni association entertained the members of the graduating class Wednesday evening at the community high building. It was quite an informal affair and following the program came an hour or two spent in a pleasant social way. Several violin numbers were given by Arthur Porbix and Miss Eleanor Brockhouse favored the company with a group of readings. Short talks were made by Rev. O. W. Lough, Rev. F. M. Crabtree, Prof. Hess and Dr. F. M. Roberts, president of the school board. During the social hour refreshments of ice cream, cake and nuts were served.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Harris Robinson and daughter, Helen of Petersburg came to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Fox.

Mrs. P. H. Ham left Friday for New London, Ia., to visit her sister for two weeks.

Mrs. A. R. Tucker left Thursday night for her home in Seranton, Pa., accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Phoebe Scott and Miss Helen Siddles, who will make an indefinite visit with her.

Miss Johanna Onken returned to her home Saturday morning from St. Charles, Ill., where she has been teaching in the high school the past year. She will return there for the coming term.

WAR VETS COMPLETE CONVENTION PLANS

Held Meeting Last Night with Record Attendance—To Provide Autos for G. A. R. and W. R. C. Members—Decorators to Start Work Monday

The regular meeting of William H. Rule camp was held last evening in American Legion hall with the largest attendance the local camp has ever had.
During the evening, Malcolm F. Greenleaf was accepted into the camp and after routine work was completed the camp spent the rest of the evening perfecting plans for the coming week.
Arrangements have been made to furnish autos for the members of the G. A. R. for the anniversary meeting Thursday afternoon and autos will also be furnished for both the G. A. R. and Woman's Relief Corps for the grand parade on Friday.
Arrangements for the fireworks and checks at the fair grounds are complete. All entrances will be on the east side at the end of State street and a large entrance for cars which will immediately turn to the left inside the grounds for parking space. For the pedestrians there will be a small gate east of the auto gate for safety's sake. After entering pedestrians may go thru an opening in the track fence direct to the grand stand. Admission for each night will be fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children. J. H. Dial was appointed to attend to ticket duties.

Thursday afternoon will bring the anniversary observation with speeches, music by several bands and an orchestra with a balloon ascension afterwards followed by army retreat. During the afternoon all veterans and members of the Ladies Auxiliary will stand and renew their oath of allegiance. The large military ball will occur in the evening after the fireworks, with music furnished by the Dixie orchestra.
During the encampment a booth for registration and information will be open on the square and the main reception committee will be assisted by all members of the local camp as a general reception and information committee.

Decorators will begin their work on the streets Monday and the pictures of heroes and scenes of the Spanish war period will be distributed to the merchants who desire them Monday so that they may be used in decorating their store windows. Attention is called to the fact that orange and black are the encampment colors, with of course a plentiful display of national colors.

Summer Frocks Interpret Charm of Young Girlhood

By JULIA BOTTOMLEY

Youth, when it is clad youthfully, is the fairest thing in mortal eyes, as irresistible as springtime—and youth has come into its own again. The old-fashioned girl, innocent of makeup, and dressed in accordance with her years, has just become the new-fashioned girl. It is fashionable to be natural, to dress simply; the overdone, hand-painted and funny flapper has "gone out." She was a calamity that followed the war.
Everybody rejoices at the turn of events, and no one more than designers, who appear to be working under an inspiration that has translated the charm of young girlhood into summer frocks. Daintiness and youth are written in every line of the pretty dress pictured here, and it has novelty as well to recommend it. It is shown in taffeta, trimmed with narrow val lace in sections, with fluted edging to match, but the design is perfectly suited to other materials—as voile, organdie, swiss or crepe de chine. The skirt has a quaint flavor, suggesting a petticoat, but the back portion and the full front are all in one. The lace insertion and edging form bandings, placed in groups of three about the round neck and across the front of the skirt, but in two rows on the remainder of the skirt. The waistline is back to normal and is finished with a twisted grille of the taffeta, ornamented at the sides with three roses, also made of the silk.

FUNERALS

Johnson
Funeral services for Mrs. Jessie Johnson were held at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence on West Morgan street, in charge of Rev. M. L. Pontius assisted by Rev. F. M. Crabtree of Chapin, and Rev. F. M. Rule.
Flowers were cared for by Mrs. Ben McCarty, Mrs. Carrie Wilkinson, Mrs. Winnie Harris and Miss Pearl Scott. Music was furnished by Mrs. Ada Lankford, soloist.
Pallbearers were: John and Roy Heaton, Ray and Richard Vasey, Carl Gordon and Homer Bradney. Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Conover
Funeral services for Mrs. Anna M. Conover were held at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the Old People's Home, in charge of Rev. M. L. Pontius. Music was furnished by Mrs. Elmer Ellis, soloist.
Pallbearers were George Deltreich, Henry Williamson, Roy Abernathy, James Finch, John Rayborn and C. H. Martin. Interment was in Concord cemetery.

Baker
The funeral of Mrs. E. F. Baker was held at the Reynolds chapel Thursday afternoon. The services were in charge of Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor of State Street church, of which Mrs. Baker was a member for many years. There was a large attendance of people who had known and respected Mrs. Baker throughout the years.
Rev. Mr. Marbach took the 23d Psalm as descriptive of the life of faith and applied it to Mrs. Baker. The minister spoke of the varied experiences that comes to one who lives to an age of 83 years, and said that throughout all the varying conditions of life that Mrs. Baker was sustained by her faith in the things that are eternal.
The deceased, he said, had been in failing health for a long period and in the later years of her life had often expressed herself as ready and willing to cross the border line.

Mrs. A. Wehl, with Miss McCurley at the organ, sang two solos. Interment was made at Diamond Grove cemetery, the bearers being William Floreth, H. B. Brady, C. C. Phelps, Miller Weir, J. Frank Strawn and George Hollinger.

Miss Glenna Adams of Winchester was a caller in the city yesterday.

PLAN WOMAN'S COLLEGE SPECIAL CAMPAIGN

Period from June 22 and July 3rd Designated for Raising of $100,000 Here—Will be Part of Total of $500,000 for College.

A campaign to raise $100,000 for Illinois Woman's college will begin in Jacksonville June 22 and close July 3. This was the decision at a meeting of a group of business men which met at the Pacific hotel last night at 6:15 o'clock. The campaign will be managed jointly by representatives of the board of education of the Methodist church and local people.
The $100,000 will be a part of $500,000 which the college must secure if it continues upon the accredited list. This is not a new movement but rather the completion of one entered upon nearly two years ago, when the Rockefeller Foundation offered to give $133,000 toward such a fund.

Out of the sum which the woman's college is to secure $400,000 will be devoted to endowment and Jacksonville and Morgan county people are to be solicited to give toward the $100,000 fund which will be used in the erection of a much needed new building.

The meeting last night was called to order by Rev. E. L. Pletcher and R. Y. Rowe was chosen as chairman.
An explanation of the campaign was given by Dr. Terry of the Methodist board of education. There was a full discussion of various affairs relating to the campaign and emphasis was laid upon the fact that this special effort for funds comes in the final days of a long campaign, and that the people of Jacksonville and vicinity are being asked to contribute one dollar for every four brought in from the outside for investment in the college.

A corps of trained workers associated with the Methodist board will co-operate with the Jacksonville workers in the local campaign. The executive committee named last night includes R. Y. Rowe, E. E. Crabtree, H. J. Rodgers, A. C. Metcalf and J. W. Walton. Quarters will be secured in the business district for the period of the special drive.

FEDERATED CLUBS TO MEET NEXT THURSDAY

Important Meeting of County Federation Scheduled for Next Thursday at D. A. R. Home—Prominent Women to Speak.

Announcement was made yesterday that two prominent women of the state are to speak here next Thursday at the annual meeting of the Morgan County Federation of Women's clubs. The sessions are to be held at the D. A. R. Home and will continue through the day.

Miss Julia Lathrop, president of the Illinois League of Women Voters, and Mrs. George Thomas Palmer, newly elected president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, are both to appear upon the program. The coming of these two widely known women adds greatly to the interest and importance of the meeting, and it is probable that club women from all parts of the county will be present in large numbers.

Every woman within reach of Jacksonville is cordially invited to attend the meeting and to bring along some article for the picnic dinner which will be served at 12:15 o'clock.

The program for the day is outlined below:
10:30 a. m.—Meeting called to order by county president, Mrs. Frank Green.
10:45 a. m.—Business.
11:00 a. m.—Report of committees.
11:10 a. m.—Two minute reports from each federated club in the county.
12:00—Report of the state federation by the president of the Twentieth district, Mrs. J. Marshall Miller.
12:15 p. m.—Picnic dinner.
1:30 p. m.—Meeting to order. Sketches from Morgan county history—Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel.
2 p. m.—Address by Mrs. George Thomas Palmer, newly elected president of the State Federation of Women's clubs.
3 p. m.—Address by Miss Julia Lathrop, president Illinois League of Women Voters.

You'll win the fight against Constipation with Kellogg's Bran!

It is wonderful news for every constipation sufferer to know that Kellogg's Bran guarantees permanent relief if it is eaten regularly. Two tablespoonsful each day; as much with each meal in chronic cases—taken consistently—will work health wonders, driving out toxic poisons, freeing affected organs and allowing nature to eliminate the wastes in its own way!

Think what this means to health when you know that constipation is responsible for a large majority of human ailments; that it is often the direct cause of Bright's and diabetes; that, in milder form, it is responsible for sick headaches, biliousness, nausea, sour breath, pimples, etc.

Get a package of Kellogg's Bran today and fight against constipation and what it leads to! Free your family from its ravages; free yourself from its grip! Within a week you will be surprised at the improvement.

Kellogg's Bran is not only a permanent relief from constipation, but it is a health food, containing mineral salts as well as other vital food elements that are a necessity to human life.

Eat Kellogg's Bran as a cereal, or sprinkle it on or mix it with other hot or cold cereals because it is ready to eat. It is delicious cooked with hot cereals. And, you have missed much if you do not know the delights of bran muffins, bran raisin bread, bran griddle cakes, etc.

Leading hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. All grocers sell Kellogg's Bran.

Pennsylvania Hard Coal For 1923

The eastern states have just gone through their greatest coal shortage. There is no assurance that the spring and summer tonnage will ever get caught up with the demand in 1923.

On September 1st the Present Mine Wage Scale on Hard Coal Expires

The hard coal miners want more money. Their low day pay scale is about $5.00. The low day scale for soft coal miners is about $7.50. This is what the hard coal miners are asking for. It looks like more money and higher priced coal or a strike. Take your pick and take your chances.

Get Your Hard Coal Early and You Are Safe. Prices will not change much this year. The most important factor now in anthracite is that of getting it. It will be impossible to make up the lost tonnage and the east will be given the preference. So the wise householder will get his coal now while it can be obtained.

Morgan County, Illinois DELINQUENT TAX LIST For the Year 1922

The following is a transcript of delinquent lands, village and city lots and railroad property upon which the taxes and special assessments are now due and unpaid for the year 1922, as returned by T. O. Wright, Sheriff and Ex-Officio Collector, Morgan County, Illinois, on the 9th day of June, A. D. 1923.

The cost of each tract of land is 86 cents; on each village or city lot, or fraction thereof, is 69 cents. When Personal property tax is added to that on real estate, the fact is indicated by the letter "P" following the tract to which such personal property tax is added. Total tax, special assessments, interest and costs for 1922 and former years are shown.

All special assessments include interest on all deferred installments up to January 1st, 1923.

CLOSING PRICES FOR WHEAT UNSETTLED

CHICAGO, June 8.—With prospects apparently less promising for a settlement between German and France, and with harvest weather favorable in Oklahoma, bears had an advantage in the wheat market today. Crop estimates from Washington proved moderately bullish as to wheat but were issued after the trading here had ended. Closing prices for wheat was unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 14c lower.
July 1.10 1/4 to 1.10 1/2 and September 1.08 1/2 to 1.08 3/4. Corn closed at 3c advance, oats unchanged to 1/2 off and provisions 15c to 30c down.

General selling which took place at the opening on the wheat market was ascribed largely to the fact that Germany's reparation offer had met with only adverse comment from French and Belgian sources whereas considerable recent buying has been based on expectation that an agreement with Germany was near at hand.

Export business was described as slow, but world shipments for the week were estimated as larger than last week's total and more than double the aggregate a year ago.

Scarcity of offerings made corn prices average higher.
Oats were depressed by erroneous bearish forecasts of the government's crop report as to oats.
Provisions turned weak in sympathy with hog values.

Retail trade, jobbing distribution of light summer goods and crop reports have shown betterment this week being aided by the arrival of long belated seasonable weather. Aiding the growth of more cheerful feeling due to this cause is also the continuance of the slightly more optimistic settlement visible in recent weeks in large primary and industrial lines.
The chief gains in actual business have been largely in the light wearing apparel trades, wash goods, dresses, fancy shoes,
etc., which have hitherto lagged.
That there is a full disposition to take advantage of the more favorable trend of weather is proved by the pushing of "sales" by both jobbers and retailers, the intent apparently being to take full advantage of long delayed seasonable weather. In purely wholesale lines there is little new activity to be noted and collections as a whole still lag, while the check to new building projects first noted in April at New York seems to have spread to other cities in May.

MISS MARGARET WALSH BECOMES A JUNE BRIDE

Well Known Young Woman Becomes Bride of Herman A. Adams at Virginia, Minn. This Morning—Will Take Wedding Trip to Canada.

The marriage of Miss Margaret Walsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Walsh of this city, and Herman A. Adams of Virginia, Minn., will be solemnized at 10 o'clock this morning at the Church of Our Lady of Lourdes in Virginia, Minn. Rev. Father John Walsh will officiate and the ceremony will be a simple but very impressive one.

The bride and groom will be attended by Miss Josephine Davidson and Edwin Davidson of Duluth, Minn., cousins of the groom. The bride will wear a gown of orchid crepe with hat to match. She will carry a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaid will be gown in peach colored crepe and will wear a black picture hat. Her flowers will be Ward roses. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served at the home of the groom's mother, Mrs. F. O. Adams, in Virginia, Minn.

The bride is, as indicated, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Walsh of 710 West North street, this city, and has spent most of her life here. She is a graduate of Rountt college, receiving her B. A. degree with the class of 1919. For the past four years she has been one of the faculty of the Aurora, (Minn.) high school, as instructor in French and Latin, and which place she has very capably filled.

She is a young woman of charming personality and has endeared herself to a wide circle of friends, all of whom will wish her all happiness in her new life.

Mr. Adams' home is in Virginia, Minn. After graduating from the high school there he attended Houghton College of Mines at Hancock, Mich., where he completed a course in engineering and is at present head engineer for the Meriden Iron Co., at Keewatin, Minn. During the world war he spent fifteen months in France with Co. B, 27th U. S. Engineers. He is a young man of sterling worth and exceptional business ability, and has a promising future before him.

The bride and groom will leave on the noon train for Winnipeg, Canada, and will be at home after July 1 at Keewatin, Minn. Their wedding life begins under very happy auspices and their many friends unite in extending congratulations and best wishes.

VISITING MUTES TAKEN OVER CITY

Twenty autos driven by local business men took the visiting mutes who are attending the reunion at the School for the Deaf, on a trip over the city yesterday afternoon. This was the first official use of the new city tour, and the procession followed it thru the principal streets and to the main points of interest in the city.

The pilot car was driven by Dennis Schram. About one hundred visitors were in the delegation. The cars toured the grounds of the Jacksonville state hospital, drove thru Nichols park, came back to the city and visited the School for the Blind, Capps factory, the high school and other principal points of interest.

The Spanish War of 1898

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

(Part One)

Webster defines an epoch as "a period of time, larger or shorter of remarkable events of great subsequent influence."

One of the greatest such times in the history of the United States was the Spanish-American War of 1898.

William McKinley a veteran of the war for the Union fortunately had been elected President of the United States in 1896. The coming of the Spanish-American veterans as our guests next week gives point to this article because many of our people have forgotten and others may not know of the events of that war.

In order that this point may be covered, extracts are made from chronology of that short but important conflict from the World Almanac of 1899.

War Began—Thursday, April 21, 7:00 A. M.

Peace Protocol Signed—Friday, August 12, 4:23 P. M.

January 1-12. The North Atlantic Squadron assembled in the neighborhood of Dry Tortugas, Gulf of Mexico.

January 15-20. Hostile demonstrations at Havana by Spanish volunteers against Americans caused the Governor-General to place a guard around the United States Consulate.

January 25. The battle-ship Maine arrived at Havana on a friendly visit.

February 14. Resolutions requesting the President to transmit information relative to the situation in Cuba were adopted by Congress.

February 5. The battle-ship Maine was blown up in the harbor of Havana by a floating mine; 260 American lives were destroyed.

February 16. Spain officially expressed regret for the Maine "incident."

February 18-25. The Spanish cruiser Viscaya visited New York Harbor. On the last date she sailed for Havana.

March 5. Spain asked for the recall of Consul-General Lee, which was promptly refused by the United States Government.

March 7. A bill appropriating $50,000,000 for the national defense was introduced in the House of Representatives. It passed the House March 8 and the Senate March 9, and was signed by the President.

March 11. The War Department began the mobilization of the army.

March 12. Armistice was offered by Spain to the Cuban insurgents.

Members of the class, faculty and alumni of the college will form in procession at the college gate at 10:15 o'clock and march to the church. The sermon will be delivered by Rev. Dr. John T. Thomas of the First Presbyterian church, Springfield. Prayer will be offered by Rev. A. P. Howells, pastor of First Baptist church.

Miss Ruth Melba Armstrong will sing a solo entitled "A Ballad of the Trees of Damascus." There will also be selections by a ladies trio consisting of Mrs. Carl E. Robinson, Miss Catherine Parker and Miss Ruth Armstrong.

The annual reunion of the Alumnae association of the Conservatory of Music, Atheneum and Jacksonville Female Academy will be held at Academy Hall at 3 o'clock this afternoon. New officers will be elected and a program will be given. Miss Anne Wakely Jackson will read some of her own poems and bird songs. Reminiscences of School Days will be given by Mrs. Mary Turner. Carried of the class of 1864. Miss Virginia Bullard will play several piano selections, and Miss Eloise Capps will render several numbers on the violin.

The president of the association, Miss Margaret Moore, will have charge during the business session.

ROTARY TO MEET WITH KIWANIS
Two Clubs Will Hear LaSalle University Speaker Next Thursday—Big Delegation Will Attend Rotary International

Rotarians at their luncheon at the Pacific hotel Friday accepted the invitation of the Kiwanis club to hold a joint meeting next Thursday night. The luncheon will be held at the Peacock Inn when an address will be delivered by Mr. Faye of the LaSalle Extension University.

Most of the Friday session of the Rotary club was occupied with completing of details for attendance at the Rotary International meeting in St. Louis June 18 to 22. Weeks ago Dr. A. H. Dolbear, who attended the convention last year in Los Angeles, began work to guarantee a very large representation of the Jacksonville club in St. Louis.

A special committee was appointed and the indications are now that more than 50 Rotarians, some of them accompanied by their wives, will attend the international sessions. Quarters have been secured at the Maryland and Claridge hotels.

Following custom, explanations were given of the purposes of Rotary for the benefit of the new members, who are C. E. Segner and Marjorie Cain. Judge H. P. Samuell spoke of Rotary work and ideals and Walter DeShara told of the movement in its incipency. The code of ethics which is the basis for Rotary conduct, was read by Dr. J. G. Ames. The guests of the day included: J. A. Cassidy, Chicago; Clifford E. Arnold, Holdenville, Okla.; George N. Rawlings, St. Louis; Bert Farmer, Clinton, and Dr. Walter L. Frank, Jacksonville.

MAKE TRIP TO EAST
Mrs. R. J. Young of West State St., has gone to Portland, Me., accompanied by Miss Mabel Goring. They will visit the cottage of Miss Elizabeth R. Taylor, principal of the Maine School for the Deaf. Mrs. Young remaining for the summer. Mrs. Wm. H. Olmstead of St. Louis, Mo., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Young, returned to her home Wednesday.

BIG SALE OF TRIMMED HATS TODAY AT HERMAN'S GOING TO FRANCE
Mrs. Miller Keplinger and sister-in-law, Miss Winifred Keplinger, expect to leave soon for Montreal, Canada, from which port they will sail for France. They will spend the summer visiting at Mrs. Keplinger's girlhood home in Aix-les-Bains.

Mrs. E. K. Crum of Cass county was a Friday shopper in this city.

SCHOOL FOR BLIND CLOSES YEAR'S WORK

Address to Graduates Given by Rev. M. L. Pontius—Diplomas Awarded by Hon. L. H. Becherer

Diplomas were granted to five graduates at the School for the Blind Friday night. The commencement exercises were held in the chapel with a large audience in attendance. R. W. Woolston, managing officer, presided and the address of the evening was made by Rev. M. L. Pontius.

The diplomas were awarded by Hon. L. H. Becherer of the department of public welfare. The musical program included organ number by George Gerlach, a group of songs by Miss Lorine Dewese, and a violin number by Frederick G. Meyers. There were also numbers by the chorus and orchestra, the entire program being greatly appreciated by the audience. The invocation and benediction were given by Rev. W. H. Marbach.

The members of the 1923 class are Willis H. Overton, Sandwich; Elizabeth E. Oprechak, Virden; George Anderson, Danville; Emma Carpenter, Marshall.

Address to Graduates
Rev. Mr. Pontius in his address to the graduates gave the following inspirational thoughts:

"Our age is wonderful. Regardless as to our perplexing problems and serious questions our age is the most wonderful in the history of human civilization. You must be prepared to grasp the opportunities and meet the demands of the twentieth century."

"Your life must have purpose. You must move in a given direction toward a definite goal. Our age can get along without the thoughtless, aimless, purposeless individual."

"You must have a vision. A mighty vision will give your life definiteness, directness; a great vision always gives life purpose and a genuine objective. The architect sees the finished building before men have appeared to excavate the earth for the foundation. He sees the finished product thru the exercise of the faculties of the soul.

"You must have an ideal. An ideal is a faculty united with an opportunity. When a vision reaches its fruition it becomes an ideal. When an ideal is reached the individual and the age are blessed."

"A genuine ideal enables you to live each day upon grander heights; it enables you to touch life at so many different points. The individual who follows a worthy ideal will live a life of unselfish service and some day awaken to find that he has become one of the constructive forces of the community in which he lives."

TO MAP HOG PENS

The health department is preparing a map of the city showing the location of all hog pens within the city limits. It is the intention of Dr. R. V. Brokaw to place this map before the city council, soon that they may have it for ready reference in efforts to eliminate this nuisance and keep all pens as sanitary as possible.

VISITORS FROM BALDWIN

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Garrett are here from Baldwin, Kans., guests at the home of Mrs. Garrett's parents, Mr. and John A. Ayers, on West State street. Mr. Garrett has for a period of years been identified with Baker university and is prominent in the life of Baldwin.

FUNERAL NOTICE

The funeral of Mrs. Iasiah Strawn will be held this afternoon at 2:30 at the Reynolds Chapel, in charge of Reverend Mr. Langton. Interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Edward Pond and family were city arrivals from Mercedosa yesterday. Mr. Pond is one of the prominent citizens in the vicinity of the town by the river and is widely and favorably known.
